25 YEARS OF GLORIOUS GIVING, THE GREATEST GIFT

KEVIN RITCHIE

The story (4.1) begun 25 years ago on 6 August 1992 when a Muslim teacher in Istanbul instructed Dr Imtiaz Sooliman to form an organisation that would be called the Gift of the Givers.

'You will help all people of all races, of all religions, of all classes, of all cultures, of any (4.2) geographicil location and of any political affiliation. You will help them (4.3) unconditional, you will not expect anything in return, not even a thank you. In fact, for what (4.4) your/you're going to be doing (4.5) expect/except to get a kick up your back. If you don't get a kick up your back, regard this as a bonus. You will treat people with love, kindness, compassion and mercy. Remember the dignity of man is foremost, so if anybody is (4.6) … on the ground, hold them, lift them, embrace them. Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, provide water for the thirsty. Wipe the tear of a grieving child, caress the head of an orphan, say words of good counsel to a widow. That costs nothing. Best (4.7) between/among people are those that benefit mankind.'

The injunction was repeated three times.

Gift of the Givers (4.8) do disaster relief, builds hospitals and houses, distributes aid and runs soup kitchens. The organisation is very small for the scale of work it (4.9) be busy with all the time but scores of volunteers give (4.10) there/their time and expertise for free when Sooliman calls to ask them to take part in one of his missions.

EXTRACT FROM 'CANDLE IN THE WIND (a tribute to Princess Diana)'

Lyrics by Elton John

1 Goodbye England's rose
May you ever grow in our hearts
You were the grace that placed itself
Where lives were torn apart
You called out to our country
And you whispered to those in pain
Now you belong to heaven
And the stars spell out your name

2 And it seems to me you lived your life
Like a candle in the wind
Never fading with the sunset
When the rain set in
And your footsteps will always fall here
Along England's greenest hills
Your candles burned out long before
Your legend ever will

3 Loveliness we've lost
These empty days without your smile
This torch we'll always carry
For our nation's golden child
Even though we try
The truth brings us to tears
All our words cannot express
The joy you've brought us through the years

4 And it seems to me you lived your life
Like a candle in the wind
Never fading with the sunset
When the rain set in
And your footsteps will always fall here
Along England's greenest hills
Your candles burned out long before
Your legend ever will

5 Goodbye England's rose
May you ever grow in our hearts
You were the grace that placed yourself
Where lives were torn apart

6 Goodbye England's rose
From the country lost
Without your soul who missed the wings of your compassion
More than you will ever know

PUPIL ON MISSION TO FEED THE POOR

SAKHILE NDLAZI

1 Ashton Frodsman, 16, is unlike most teenagers his age. This Grade 10 pupil from St Albans College has a strong sense of community and has an admirable concern for others. Inspired by a 23-day, 405 km school hike with 124 of his fellow pupils, Ashton has set up an ambitious crowdfunding campaign on BackaBuddy to raise R125 000 to feed 150 impoverished individuals for the next six months.

2 'This trip was the first time in my life that I wasn't able to open a fridge door when I wanted to. It made me realise how essential food is and got me thinking how terrible it must be to go without a meal for a day, let alone a few days,' he said.

3 Ashton realised the importance of a good breakfast on this trip and has made it his mission to crowdfund his cause and create and distribute a 'Breakfast Pack' to those who need it most, the marginalised city dwellers who rely on feeding schemes, many of which no longer operate due to lack of funds.

4 Ashton has a very clear idea of what he wants to achieve and is no stranger to fundraising. With his current campaign, he wants to motivate his school and local community to be a part of his journey and do their part, big or small, to change the lives of those less fortunate.

5 'Crowdfunding provides individuals such as Ashton with an opportunity to pursue community projects they are passionate about through securing a number of small donations rather than relying on government and large organisations for support,' said Zane Groenewald, marketing officer at BackaBuddy.

ADDENDUM A (FOUR PAWS BROCHURE)

Our vision is a world where humans treat animals with respect, empathy and understanding.

OUR CAMPAIGNS

Our campaigns aim to achieve lasting political and social improvements in the living conditions of farm animals, wild animals and companion animals. We provide scientifically tested and recognised solutions and suggestions for sustainable improvements for companion and farm animals. We campaign to end animal testing in favour of sophisticated, cutting edge advanced non-animal research techniques that offer more reliable human-relevant approaches to research. We are also working towards a global ban on the breeding and keeping of animals for fur production, and to campaign towards ending the use of all wild animals in entertainment including circuses and private captivity.

Due to the increasing importance legislation on animal welfare issues, we are stepping up our efforts, attempting to influence relevant regulations from their inception.

FOUR PAWS is currently campaigning for all canned lion hunting in South Arica to be banned by law. Until them, we will continue to rescue lions and save them from trophy hunters

Sign up to receive campaign updates at www.four-paws.org.za

OUR PROJECTS

Our projects provide direct and immediate assistance for animals in danger. FOUR PAWS also instigates projects designed to improve the political framework and to prevent further animal suffering in advance.

Bears

FOUR PAWS rescues bears kept in unsuitable conditions in circuses, zoos or in private captivity. We operate three bear sanctuaries in Austria, Germany and Bulgaria. The naturalistic surroundings and expert care allow many of the bears to hibernate for the first time in their lives. We also run a bear orphanage in Romania, where young bears are rehabilitated and released into the wild.

Lions

Miserable conditions for lions in zoos and private captivity led FOUR PAWS to build a sanctuary for big cats in South Africa. LIONSROCK offers big cats a safe home which meets their natural requirements for the rest of their lives.

The animals we rescue live in the highest quality sanctuaries.

We provide expert care for mistreated animals.

Orangutans

The destruction of Borneo's rainforest threatens the orangutan with extinction. FOUR PAWS operates a rescue station in Samboja Lestari, in cooperation with the Borneo Orangutan Survival Foundation (BOS). Orphaned orangutans are nursed back to health and prepared for their return to the wild.

Stray Animal Care

In many countries stray animals, particularly dogs and cats, are a regular sight. FOUR PAWS works to prevent illness and the uncontrollable breeding of strays in a sustainable way. The animals are neutered, vaccinated, de-wormed, treated for illness or injury, then provided with water and food.

FOUR PAWS also operates and supports other projects. Our Disaster Relief Team are on stand-by to provide aid for animals following natural disasters. This in turn benefits local communities that rely on the animals for their livelihoods. We fund many smaller projects that alleviate animal suffering and return animals to the wild wherever possible.

There are a number of ways you can help the animals, whether it be making a donation, leaving a gift in your will or raising funds in your local community.
