QUESTION 6

Read the extract below and answer the questions.

THINK BEFORE YOU TEXT!!!

Being a college student can be tough. There is pressure to do well in your academic life while maintaining a good social life too! Life got tougher for Zinzi, a NCV L2 student, when she became a victim of cyber-bullying via Facebook and WhatsApp.

Zinzi says that her best friend's girlfriend sees her as a threat and began to send her threatening text messages, voice messages, pictures and videos with the aim that she would end her friendship. Zinzi feels embarrassed, sad and depressed by the messages she is receiving! Everyone can see the nasty comments posted on Facebook.

Zinzi says: 'She criticises my body, what I am studying, where I attend college, etc. All the things I am proud of is being degraded, which makes me feel unaccomplished and unsuccessful. I am angry. I cry every day! I don't know how to stop this bully! My academic results are suffering and I am demotivated …'

6.1 What evidence (examples) can you find in the extract that Zinzi was a victim of bullying? (3)

6.2 Based on what you have learned, what can Zinzi do to deal with the bullying? (3)

6.3 Why do you think Zinzi's self-esteem is low? (3)
