SECTION A (WORD PROCESSING)

QUESTION 1 TIME: 20 MINUTES

You are an editor of the college newsletter. The college statistics reveal a significant increase in the number of students who have visited the college clinic to receive treatment for STIs. As a result, the CEO has requested you to write an article to warn students about the dangers of promiscuity and unprotected sex. The article will be published in the forthcoming edition of the newsletter to coincide with the World Aids Day commemoration.

1.1 Use MS Word to key in the document as indicated below. Do not number the paragraph as it was only done to help you in answering your questions. (9)

1.2 Set the font to Arial, size 12. (2)

1.3 Key in your EXAMINATION NUMBER (left-align) and QUESTION 1 (right-align) in capital letters as indicated below. (3)

1.4 Bold and underline the heading. (2)

1.5 Right-align the heading as indicated. (1)

1.6 Centre-align Paragraph 2. (1)

1.7 Save the document as MAKING THE RIGHT CHOICE according to your college examination regulations.

1.8 Print the document on one A4 portrait page and place the PRINTOUT into your EXAMINATION FOLDER. (2)

EXAMINATION NUMBER QUESTION 1

Editor's corner: Is it really worth risking it all?

1. Statistics reveal that South Africa is among the countries with the largest HIV pandemic in the world. It is estimated that more than 6 million South Africans are with HIV. It was further found that becoming sexually active at an early age increases the lifetime risk of getting HIV. This is mainly because young people are more likely to engage in high risk behaviours such as alcohol and drug use, unprotected sex and having multiple sex partners.

2. One has noted with great concern that having multiple sexual partners seems to be the most popular thing in our college. However, the above statistics MUST make us re-evaluate our behavioural patterns as young people as risky sexual behavior can be detrimental. Our academic careers and social lives are placed at risk in this regard.

   CHOOSE WISELY, YOU ONLY HAVE ONE LIFE. THE FUTURE IS OURS
