QUESTION 1: INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

As a supervisor, you have noticed that the situation at AGANANG OLD AGE HOME has been worsening over time. Most of the elderly have been admitted to the hospital due to ill health. Some of them came to your office, asking to be moved to other old age homes. Management is also concerned about the home's reputation.

On 8 February 2019, the director asked you to investigate the matter. She would like to hear from the elders themselves and find out what their concerns are so that the image of the institution can be brought back to its glory. The report had to be completed by 10 March 2019.

Write an investigative report of 200–250 words by making use of the following core notes as well as incorporating your own ideas:

- The elderly's clothes are not washed regularly.
- Rooms are untidy and only cleaned once a week.

QUESTION 2: DESCRIPTIVE/FEEDBACK REPORT

Answer this question on ADDENDUM A (attached).
Hand it in with your ANSWER BOOK.

Management decided to send all the elders on a two-day holiday in Sun City with money raised from a community fun run. You and four other staff members accompanied them. Some of the items on the itinerary included a visit to the animal farm, lunch with the chief of the local Bakgatla community, a visit to the Valley of Waves and a braai at the end of the day.

One of the elders fell while trying to get onto a ferry train to the Valley of Waves. He was attended to immediately and fortunately had no fractures. He went back to the team and continued with the fun activities.

Some of the elders complained that the water current in the Valley of Waves was too strong for them and that they were afraid of drowning. Others got lost while walking around in Sun City. The braai started so late that some of the elders were already asleep by the time the food was served.

Despite all these problems, the trip was a huge success and all the elders said they would like to go on another trip in the near future.

On 4 March 2019, the Campus Manager, Ms Diale, requested you to submit a feedback report on the trip.
