higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

LIFE ORIENTATION
(First Paper)
NQF LEVEL 3

28 FEBRUARY 2019

This marking guideline consists of 10 pages.

Copyright reserved

MARKING GUIDELINES FOR EXAMINERS

1. Examiners are reminded that the subject Life Orientation lends itself to broad interpretations and therefore broad ranges of answers.

2. The marking memorandum serves as a guideline to markers/examiners and is not intended to be absolute or prescriptive.

3. The answers provided in this memorandum are therefore not exhaustive and examiners/markers are requested to use their discretion when marking. Answers provided by students should also be assessed within the context of their life experiences.

4. Content should be marked and not grammar.

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

1.1 F
1.2 A
1.3 E
1.4 B
1.5 C

(5 × 1) [5]

QUESTION 2

2.1 True
- Employees with good work ethics have a positive attitude towards their work.
- It helps boost employee morale and productivity.
- Ethics are like a set of rules that guides employees to behave well in the workplace.

2.2 False
- Diversity promotes productivity, creativity, increase adaptability, positive reputation and a broader service plan.

2.3 False
- They can convince the other person/people very emphatically.

2.4 False
- Can be transmitted through breastfeeding
- From mother to child during pregnancy
- Through body fluids: blood of an infected person

2.5 False
- Auditory leaners repeat words while learning.

(5 × 2) [10]

QUESTION 3

3.1 B
3.2 C
3.3 C
3.4 D
3.5 C

(5 × 1) [5]

QUESTION 4

4.1 4.1.1
- It is a process of resolving conflict with the help of a third person who is neutral and does not take either side in the argument.
- It is used when parties are in conflict and need a peacekeeper to help them to resolve it. (Any 1 × 2)

4.1.2
- It is a process of discussion used to reach an agreement.
- It is used when two or more parties are willing to meet and discuss a problem and find a solution to resolve it.

4.1.3
- It is resolving conflict with the help of a lawyer.
- It is used to settle contractual or commercial disputes.

4.1.4 It is a method used to find a solution to conflict. You look at the cause of the conflict, how each person wants it to be solved, look at the different possible solutions and then choose the best solution for everybody.

(4 × 2) (8)

4.2
- Visual
- Aural
- Tactical
- Verbal
- Logical
- Interpersonal
- Intrapersonal

(Any 3 × 1) (3)

4.3
- The health and wellness needs of the employees
- How much time is available to run the programme
- What is the budget
- How many people are on the committee
- Where can the programme activities take place
- How will you encourage employees to participate (Any 3 × 1) (3)

4.4
- Being late for work
- Always taking long breaks
- Making personal calls on the company phone
- Watching pornography during working hours
- Not meeting deadlines
- Always socialising with everyone at work (Any 4 × 1) (4)

4.5
- Report it to the management
- If there is no reaction, report it to the CCMA (Any 2 × 1) (2)

[20]

TOTAL SECTION A: 40

SECTION B

QUESTION 5

5.1
- A supervisor implies to an employee that the employee must sleep with him/her to keep a job.
- An employee makes demeaning comments about female/male customers to his/her coworkers.
- Coworkers cause employees to feel uncomfortable by regularly telling explicit sexual jokes.
- An employee pinches or fondles a coworker against his/her will.
- Several employees post sexually explicit jokes on an office intranet bulletin board.
- An employee sends emails to coworkers that contain explicit sexual language and jokes. (Any 3 × 1) (3)

5.2 Unproductive
- It makes employee uncomfortable.
- It is offensive and intimidating.
- It causes employees to have stress and depression which affect their productivity.

(ONE mark for 'unproductive' and TWO marks for 2 reasons (1 + 2)) (3)

5.3
- Design a clear sexual harassment policy.
  That policy should define sexual harassment, state in no uncertain terms that it will not be tolerated, state that you will discipline or fire any wrongdoers and set out a clear procedure for filing sexual harassment complaints.
- Train employees.
  At least once a year, conduct training sessions for employees. These sessions should teach employees what sexual harassment is, explain that employees have a right to a workplace free of sexual harassment, review your complaint procedure and encourage employees to use it.
- Train supervisors and managers.
  Conduct training sessions for supervisors at least once a year, separate from the employee sessions. These sessions should educate the managers and supervisors about sexual harassment and explain how to deal with complaints.
- Encourage people to report cases.
  Follow up on investigations to get the details of the case.
- Investigate and conduct disciplinary action regarding the wrongdoers.
  Correct the wrong and unacceptable behaviour. (Any 3 × 2) (6)

5.4 MUSIC

How many lyrics to songs do you remember? How did you come to remember them? The same method used to recall song lyrics can be used just as successfully to remember academic knowledge. Music can be used to help students recall important details to main ideas and many learners have made songs out of information when a list of items must be learned.

NAME

In a name mnemonic, the 1st letter of each word in a list of items is used to make a name of a person or thing. Sometimes, the items can be rearranged to form a more recollectable name mnemonic.

EXPRESSION OR WORD

It is the most popularly used mnemonic. To make an expression or word mnemonic, the first letter of each item in a list is arranged to form a phrase or word, for example PDP plan.

MODEL

In a model mnemonic, some type of representation is constructed to help with understanding and recalling important information. Use of pyramid or pie charts and boxes to recall words and phrases.

ODE OR RHYME

The information or words to be recalled are created in a form of a poem. Those words are recited.

NOTE ORGANISATION
The way textbook and lecture notes are organised can inhibit learning and recalling information. The organisation of notes can promote recalling. It is a memory device, e.g. use of note cards, etc.

IMAGE
Pictures, sketches and virtual images can be used to recall information.

CONNECTION
The information to be recalled is connected with the words or phrases already known.

SPELLING
Words or phrases can be used to remember spelling of words that are difficult for the student to remember. (Any 3 × 2) (6)

5.5
- Likes to deal with ideas, stories and images
- Thinks in emotional, natural or dreamy way
- Is guided by feelings more that facts
- Is a dreamer more than an analyser
- Likes to see the whole issue
- Can think of many things at the same time
- Not very well organised, jumps from task to task (Any 2 × 1) (2)

[20]

QUESTION 6

6.1
- Use the word NO. Everyone understands the meaning of the word NO.

  Give a strong nonverbal NO message. There are many body movements that can support a verbal NO message. Use your hands or arm movements for emphasis.

- Fight back if everything fails

  Use a firm tone of voice to support the NO message. The way you say something often gives a stronger message than the words themselves.

- Repeat the NO message as much as needed. Eventually, the person will get the message or give up. (3)

6.2
- Practicing safe sex
- Abstaining from sex
- Being alert of infection from body fluids of an HIV positive person
- Avoid substance abuse
- Getting tested every three months (Any 3 × 1) (3)

6.3
- Gender stereotyping is overgeneralisation of characteristics, differences and attributes of a certain group based on their gender.
- Gender stereotypes create a widely accepted judgment or bias about certain characteristics or traits that apply to each gender. (Any 2 × 1) (2)

6.4
- Women are supposed to be shy, passive and submissive.
- Women are organised and clean.
- Men are expected to be tough, aggressive, dominant and self-confident.
- Men are lazy and messy.
- Women are supposed to cook and do housework.
- Women are better at raising children.
- Stay-at-home mothers are better than working mothers.
- Men are better at household repairs.
- Men cannot cook, sew or care for their children. Men always tell their wives what to do.
- Women are supposed to have 'clean' jobs such as teachers, nurses, secretaries and librarians.
- Men are supposed to have 'dirty jobs' like mechanics, construction workers, plumbers and engineers.
- Men are better doctors. Men are supposed to be in charge at work and should make more money than women.
- Men are better politicians. (Any 3 × 1) (3)

6.5 6.5.1 Deep dislike of non-nationals by nationals of a recipient state. Xenophobia is also a manifestation of racism. Racism and xenophobia support each other and they share prejudiced discourses. (2)

6.5.2 (a) HUMAN TRAFFICKING

- It is the trade of humans, most commonly for the purpose of sexual slavery, forced labour or commercial sexual exploitation for the trafficker or others. All these acts are against human rights.
- It is the exploitation of people from impoverished areas, refugees, ethnic minorities and low income households.
- It is the violation of their rights by turning them into slaves.

(b) GENOCIDE

It is the deliberate and systematic destruction/ termination of a racial, political or cultural group.

(2 × 2) (4)

6.5.3
- The Salvation Army
- Human Rights Commission
- United Nations
- Police (Any 3 × 1) (3)

[20]

QUESTION 7

7.1 CORRUPTION
- Misuse of position for private gain.
- The lack of transparency of state officials in the form of barriers to access public information.
- Corruption is when a decision maker consents to deviate or demands deviation from the criterion which should rule his/her decision making, in exchange for a reward or for the promise or expectation of a reward.

(Any 1 × 2)

ECONOMIC CRIME
- It covers a wide range of offenses, from financial crimes committed by banks, tax evasion, illicit trade, money laundering, crimes committed by public officials (like bribery, embezzlement, clear traffic offences, etc.) among many others.
- Economic crime is regarded to generate considerable social damage because it doesn't only affect democratic institutions but also undermines the state treasury by cutting available resources for the implementation of public policies. (Any 1 × 2)

(2 × 2) (4)

7.2
- Whistle-blowing - being open about acts of economic crime and corruption without fear
- Reporting a case - taking action of taking to book people who have committed actions of corruption
- Choose to comply with the law of the country - refuse to be part of corrupt activities
- Refuse bribes - avoid gaining from misuse of state assets

(TWO marks for explaining any two methods) (4)

7.3
- Corrupt individuals enrich themselves while honest citizens become impoverished.
- It is a form of human rights violation
- It is crime against the economy of the country
- It is against the constitution
- It causes a lot of pain, even death at times to the individuals who were manipulated or victimised (Any 2 × 1) (2)

[10]

TOTAL SECTION B: 50

SECTION C

QUESTION 8

8.1 Morally unacceptable behaviour (2)

8.2 She should:
- Be polite and helpful to all the students
- Value her work
- Treat everyone professionally
- Respect her clients (Any 2 × 2) (4)

8.3
- Favouritism – giving attention to your favourite employees and ignoring or being rude to the others
- Late coming – not being on time
- Gossiping – telling hurtful stories about other employees
- Wasting company money – spending time on the cellphone for private calls, twitter and WhatsApp
- Nepotism – giving jobs to friends and family
- Absenteeism – staying away from work for no reason
- Laziness – not doing your job (Any 3 × 1) (3)

8.4 8.4.1 Bribery (2)

8.4.2
- Nepotism
- Embezzlement
- Graft
- Maladministration
- Tender procurement cheating
- Double-dipping (Any 3 × 1) (3)

8.4.3
- You may lose out on services and resources that were meant for you
- You may end up without a house
- Basic services like water and electricity may not be provided

(Any 3 × 2) (6)

[20]

QUESTION 9

9.1
- Turn the person on his/her side so water can come out of his/her mouth
- Free the airways
- Give rescue breaths, mouth to mouth
- Give CPR or chest compressions if needed
- Take the person to the hospital or call an ambulance (Any 5 × 1) (5)

9.2 Yes (1)
- Swimming is a form of exercise
- Swimmers helps your body to function better
- It makes your body flexible
- It is a form of mind therapy (2 × 1) (2)

9.3
- Watch out, water kills
- No drinking near water
- Stop diving in deep water
- Know how deep before you dive
- Be informed or be deformed
- Practice safety each day
- Accidents hurt, safety doesn't
- Safety is not expensive – its priceless (Student's own slogans) (Any 2 × 1) (2)

[10]

TOTAL SECTION C: 30
GRAND TOTAL: 120