higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

ENGLISH FIRST ADDITIONAL LANGUAGE

(First Paper)

NQF LEVEL 3

8 NOVEMBER 2019

This marking guideline consists of 8 pages.

Copyright reserved

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

1.1 1.1.1 True.✓ 'Stress can cause changes in your body that affect your overall physical, mental, and emotional health.'✓ (2)

1.1.2 False.✓ 'Depression is a highly treatable condition.'✓ (2)

1.1.3 True.✓ 'Shorting yourself on sleep, and especially pulling an all-nighter, robs you of energy and your ability to concentrate.'✓ (2)

1.2 1.2.1 'Trouble functioning in class or in your personal life.'✓✓
(Accept 'in class' as a response.)

OR

'Burnt out from studying or schoolwork.'
(Award ONE mark for the quotation marks and ONE mark for the actual quote.)
(2)

1.2.2 Depression (1)

1.2.3 'Depression is more serious and long-lasting than stress.' (2)

1.2.4 Suicidal thoughts (2)

1.2.5 Stress - change in eating habits✓ and depression - eating more or less than usual. ✓ (2)

1.2.6 Failure to remember and concentrate will result in reduced outputs in the work place. It may cause friction among colleagues or even with the employers. It may even result in one losing one's job.
(Any relevant 1 × 2) (2)

1.3 1.3.1 C
1.3.2 A
1.3.3 D
1.3.4 B (4 × 1) (4)

1.4 If stress is positive and it makes you want to do something or achieve your goals, it is good.✓ However, if it is making you tired and drained then it is bad for you.✓ (2)

1.5 It is not easy to cure yourself✓ of depression on your own.✓ (2)

1.6 1.6.1 By writing down the causes, you will eventually be able to diagnose your problem and do something about preventing the problem in future./Writing down the causes will force you to reflect on what is causing stress and may enable you to try to prevent it in future.
(Any relevant 1 × 2) (2)

1.6.2 This will force you to think of solutions to your problem. It is easier for a person to try out his or her own solutions. It also helps you to try each one out and decide which is best.

(Any relevant 1 × 2) (2)

1.6.3 It will enable a person to progress slowly according to his or her ability. He or she decides on what is best for him or her and how he or she will manage themselves. (2)

1.7 If you work throughout the night,✓ you will lose concentration and you will feel extremely exhausted.✓ (2)

1.8 Figurative.✓ This refers to two individuals engaging in a conversation where everything is openly discussed. All emotions are open to each other. Nothing is held back.✓✓ (3)

1.9 Toxic means poisonous✓ and in this case a person needs to speak out to rid himself of feelings that are negative and poisonous and affecting his well-being.✓ (2)

1.10 A depressed person will feel as if there is something mentally wrong with him or her.✓ He or she will be afraid that people will not be sympathetic towards them./It is not easy to talk about an illness that is not physical.✓ (2)

[40]

TOTAL SECTION A: 40

SECTION B

QUESTION 2

- Develop self-awareness so that you know when the episode is coming on.✓
- Use your coping skills and depression treatment options that worked well before.✓
- Make sure your supervisor knows that you are sick.✓
- Let your support system know that you need their support.✓
- Prioritise your tasks so that you use your energy for the most important issues.✓
- Find out whether some tasks can be deferred and, if so, get help from others.✓
- Commit yourself to completing the most important tasks first.✓
- Complete work to the best of your ability.✓
- Feel confident about what you have done, especially if you know that you have given it your best despite your episode.✓

(Any 7 points totaling 80 words) [10]

MARK ALLOCATION

Content	Layout	Grammar/Language/Style
7 points✓✓✓✓✓✓✓	Point form✓	✓✓

The summary should be marked as follows:

Content	Language mark allocation(errors)
• 7 points✓✓✓✓✓✓✓	2	Own words with NO spelling or grammar mistakes
• Language 2	1	FOUR or more grammar mistakes and mostly lifted
	0	Not in own words and many errors

TOTAL SECTION B: 10

SECTION C

QUESTION 3

3.1 Discarded plastic is destroying/polluting the environment./Discarded plastic is killing wildlife and is dangerous to one's health.

(Any relevant 1 × 2) (2)

3.2 To draw attention to the fact that we need to break out/separate ourselves from plastic.

(Any relevant answer that refers to the need to break free from the bondage plastic holds over the world.) (2)

3.3 There is a constant demand✓ for plastic in our society despite the dangers to the environment.✓ (2)

3.4 They are likely to have serious health✓ problems in the future.✓ (2)

3.5 Pity/Sadness/Sympathy.✓ The plastic is destroying marine life.✓ (2)

[10]

QUESTION 4

4.1 Individuals will be able to work in the comfort of their home✓ without the hassle of travelling to a venue and be able to work as and when they please.✓ There will be no restrictions. (2)

4.2 'Skilled and experienced carpenters are in demand around the world.'
(Award THREE marks only if the quotation marks are included. If there are no quotation marks, deduct ONE mark.) (3)

4.3 'Get Started!' (2)

4.4 Yes. The visual depicts a carpenter at work with all the necessary tools needed to do his job.✓ The background suggests a professional orderly workshop.✓ The advertisement promises a professional service with quality equipment.✓

(Any 1 ½ × 2) (3)
[10]

QUESTION 5

5.1 Both deal with bullying/harassment.
Both show a colleague or superior shouting at or talking down to somebody. (2)

5.2 5.2.1 The man/men (1)

5.2.2 Both men are pointing their fingers and standing in positions of authority, while their mouths are open suggesting they are shouting. All these indicate they have power over the person they are shouting at.

(Any 2 × 1)
(2)

5.3 5.3.1 His hand is in a fist, which shows he is very angry. (1)

5.3.2 Her hands are raised and her body turned away✓as if to protect herself. This suggests she is very afraid.✓

(ONE body language and ONE reason.) (2)

5.3.3 In an office.✓ They are both formally dressed./The woman has a pile of documents in her hand.✓ (2)
[10]

TOTAL SECTION C: 30

SECTION D

QUESTION 6

6.1 a
6.2 which
6.3 generally
6.4 occurs
6.5 is
6.6 there
6.7 between 6.8 an
6.9 meeting
6.10 combination

(10 × 1) [10]

QUESTION 7

7.1 7.1.1 Focus
7.1.2 develop

(2 × 1) (2)

7.2 7.2.1 Simile (1)

7.2.2 Life is compared to a camera. As a camera focuses, captures and develops pictures,✓ in life, we need to focus, acknowledge the good times and learn lessons.✓ (2)

7.3 7.3.1 Take another photo
7.3.2 Try again until you succeed

(2 × 2) (4)

7.4 Another shot✓ should/must be taken✓ if things don't work out.✓ (3)

7.5
- The police shot at the criminal.
- If you take a shot too many at the bar, you must arrange that someone else drives you home.
- The player pulled off a winning shot.
- I thought I will have a shot at making my own bread.

(Any relevant 1 × 2) (2)
[14]

QUESTION 8

8.1 8.1.1 Willingly/freely/gladly/unquestioningly/voluntarily

8.1.2 Respected/recognised/considered
[Accept valid alternative responses.] (2 × 1) (2)

8.2 8.2.1 To wake up in a bad mood – to be grumpy or feel angry from the moment you wake up for no obvious reason.

8.2.2 All the boy does is complain about how much he dislikes education./Everything is a problem for him.
(2 × 2) (4)

8.3 8.3.1 I don't want to know anything new therefore I don't want to go to school.
(2)

8.3.2
- I liked things better when I didn't understand them,✓ because I'm being educated against my will.
- Because I'm being educated against my will, I liked things better when I didn't understand them. (Any ONE) (1)

8.4 He said that he had✓ liked things better when he hadn't understood✓ them. (ONE mark for each change as indicated) (2)

8.5 My rights will✓ be✓ trampled on. (2)

8.6 The speaker is expressing his feelings strongly./The speaker is showing anger./The speaker is emphasising his point.✓ (Any 1 × 1) (1)

8.7 Do not. (2)
(16)

TOTAL: SECTION D [40]

SECTION E

QUESTION 9

9.1 9.1.1 No. He was asked about how his attention to detail will help him in his new job.✓ He needed to talk about his character. Instead he gave a general answer that failed to answer the question.✓
(Any relevant answer that speaks to his failure to answer the question about attention to detail. Do NOT award marks for Yes/No.) (2)

9.1.2 The answer was too vague and failed to respond to the question.✓ The interviewer is giving the interviewee another chance✓ to provide details. (2)

9.1.3 No. He repeated the answer, but just changed the words slightly. (Do NOT award marks for Yes/No.) (2)

9.1.4 No. One should never refer to a former employee in a negative way.✓ The interviewee described his boss as 'horrible'.✓ Furthermore, he provided information about theft and the reason for his dismissal./No company will hire him if he has a track record of dishonesty.✓ (Any relevant answer. Do NOT award marks for Yes/No.) (3)

9.1.5 No. He was supposed to speak about an accomplishment that will help him in this post.✓ He failed to answer the question,✓ because punctuality is not an accomplishment.✓ (3) [12]

9.2 9.2.1 Accept any THREE positive words that are associated with interviews. (3)

9.2.2 Confident; sitting back comfortably in a chair; direct eye contact; relaxed attitude. Avoid folded arms; sitting forward in seat, etc. (Any relevant 2 × 1) (2)

9.2.3 They are casual/informal.✓ They are not suited to a formal interview situation.✓ They suggest hesitation in answering, which creates a bad picture./They are conversational in style.✓ (Any 1 ½ marks × 2) (3)

9.2.4 Yes. PICTURE C shows strong positive words that ought to be used in an interview,✓ while PICTURE D shows words that should not be used, because they create a negative impression.✓ (2) [10]

10.1 10.1.1 To discuss issues pertaining to the running of the company; to provide ground rules; to give information; to give instructions; to provide an update. (Any 2 × 1) (2)

10.1.2 They are bored.✓ They are not listening to the speaker./Their heads are down./No one is looking at him. (ONE mark for feeling and TWO marks for any example of body language.) (3)

10.1.3
PICTURE F.✓
Everyone is smiling. They are looking at each other. They are talking and everyone appears focused. The laptop is open suggesting discussions are taking place.✓✓
(TWO reasons, as well as Picture F, for full marks.)

(3)

Copyright reserved

[8]

TOTAL SECTION E:

30

GRAND TOTAL:

150 ð