higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

PROJECT MANAGEMENT
NQF LEVEL 3

11 MARCH 2019

This marking guideline consists of 10 pages.

Copyright reserved

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

1.1 G
1.2 J
1.3 I
1.4 B
1.5 D
1.6 F
1.7 K
1.8 A
1.9 H
1.10 E

(10 × 1) [10]

QUESTION 2

2.1 False
2.2 True
2.3 False
2.4 True
2.5 True
2.6 True
2.7 False
2.8 True
2.9 False
2.10 False

(10 × 1) [10]

TOTAL SECTION A: 20

SECTION B

QUESTION 3

3.1
- Everyone is equal before the law and has the right to equal protection and benefit of the law.
- No one may be unfairly discriminated against based on race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, age, language, etc.
- All South Africans are equal in the eyes of the law and no one deserves better treatment. (3)

3.2
- Communication

Good and clear communication (written, oral, symbols/signals or non-verbal) between team members is crucial for the performance of a team.

- Methods of communication

A decision as to how information will be communicated must be taken to ensure that important messages like a meeting reaches everyone in the team.

- Consultation

Team members should be consulted about aspects regarding the project that influence them. Joint decision-making leads to greater buy-in and more success in reaching goals.

- Initiating team work

Each employee must know what is expected of him/her. Once they are happy with their responsibilities, a chart can be used which shows each member's responsibilities and doubles as a reminder that they are part of a team and not working alone.

- Identify information

Having enough of the right information is an important part of successfully completing tasks. Open channels of communication ensure that team members can ask for information.

- Providing feedback

Team members need to know how well they are doing and if they are working successfully towards the achievement of the team objectives.

- Identify conflict situations

Conflict can hamper team performance and must be identified as soon as possible. Methods of resolving conflict must be decided upon by everyone and adhered to.

- Measuring performance

Performance appraisals must be done to ensure that team members know whether they reached their personal goals and to recognise and correct problem areas. (Any 5 × 2) (10)

3.3
- Letters
- Memorandums
- Faxes
- E-mail messages (4)

3.4
- The project will not be completed in the allocated time.
- The project might go over budget.
- The project will not be of the required standard.
- Ultimately, the project will fail.
- The outcomes will not be reached. (Any 3 × 1) (3)

3.5
- Giving feedback

All team members must be able and feel comfortable to give feedback to other members regarding anything which may alter the team dynamics.

- Support

Team members should feel supported by the rest of the team.

- Listening

Mrs Moiloa must ensure that everyone in the team feels that they are being listened to.

- Consultation

Mrs Moiloa must involve team members in the decision-making process.

- Discussions

When team members discuss how they are feeling, problems and challenges can be resolved.

- Embracing diversity

Everyone in the team must feel accepted, regardless of who they are.

- Negotiation

Negotiation and compromising are essential in any team situation. The team must be able to find middle ground. (Any 5 × 2) (10)

[30]

QUESTION 4

4.1
- One person's idea of acceptable standards may not be the same as that of another person.
- A deliverable may consist of more than one area of expertise, and the person conducting the inspection may not be an expert in all areas.
- Inspection is a time-consuming process.
- The person inspecting the deliverables may miss something.
- Conflict of interest will cause problems. (Any 4 × 2) (8)

4.2
- Accessibility

When documents are filed, it must still be easy to gain access to it.

- Suitable equipment

Paper documents are filed in files and stored in cabinets, whereas electronic documents are filed on a computer with back-ups filed elsewhere.

- Safety

Documents must be stored where it is protected from damage by water, fire and dust.

- Simplicity

The filing system must be easy enough for anyone to understand.

- Appropriate classification

All documents must be appropriately categorised for the specific project.

- Security

Confidential paper documents must be stored in locked cabinets and confidential electronic documents should be stored with password protection.

- Trained administration staff

Staff must be trained and professional in dealing with project documents.

- Economical in terms of time, cost of equipment and accessories

The selected system must fit into the amount allocated for it in the project budget.

- Compactness

A filing system must be chosen that physically fits in the available space for filing. (Any 5 × 2) (10)

4.3
- Labour
- Overheads
- Materials
- Supplies
- Equipment
- General and administrative cost
- Profit (Any 6 × 1) (6)

Copyright reserved

4.4
- She must present the deviations to the relevant stakeholders.
- She must send a written copy to every stakeholder.
- She must show the invoices and show the comparison of the budget and the actual.
- She must complete a change control template and get the necessary authorisation. (Any 3 × 1) (3)

4.5
- Scope management

Scope must be managed carefully by Mrs Moiloa as any changes in scope can affect the cost of the project.

- Scope planning

It is the process of developing a written scope statement.

- Scope definition

It describes what is included in the project as well as what will be excluded.

- Create a WBS

Scope must be agreed upon first by all stakeholders before a WBS can be created.

- Scope verification

The process of getting the stakeholders to accept the scope of the project as decided upon.

- Scope control

Involves watching for any factors that can create changes in the project scope and controlling the impact of the changes.

- Scope creep

Refers to any changes to a project once the project work has started.

(Any 4 × 2) (8)

[35]

QUESTION 5

5.1 Gantt chart for the Kwazulu-Natal clean-up and recycle project:✓

Activities	Duration
	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5✓
1. Brief team and stakeholders✓	✓
2. Clean beaches✓			✓
3. Clean marine environment✓				✓
4. Sort and transport rubbish✓					✓

(10 × 1) (10)

5.2 Leaders
Anyone who is followed by other people, even if they are not in charge. Leaders are not always appointed but naturally stand in as the leader. The leader in the case study is Mr Stevens.

Managers
Managers are people in charge. They coordinate people's efforts and allocate resources to maximise efficiency in achieving identified outcomes. The manager is the person responsible for planning, controlling, leading, organising and decision-making. The manager in the project is Mrs Moiloa.

(2 × 2) (4)

5.3
- Take risks

Mr Stevens must be willing to take risks even if there is a chance of failure. He must have courage in situations where results are not guaranteed.

- Encourage and inspire others

Mr Stevens must motivate individuals to work towards common goals of the team.

- See the goal

Mr Stevens must know what the project goal is and have a strategy to achieve the goal.

- Make decisions

Mr Stevens must be confident in the decisions he makes, even if it might mean that he will be unpopular.

- Turn groups into teams

Mr Stevens must create a productive team out of the group of people appointed for the clean-up and recycle project.

•Pursue lifelong learning
Mr Stevens must have the desire to learn and grow and be open to new ideas.

- Communicate effectively

He should be able to adjust his communication style to the diverse people he deals with in his team.

- Help others succeed
  - He must encourage others to reach their full potential.
  - He must be consistent.
  - He must apply equality by treating everyone in his team the same.

- Know themselves

He must know his own strengths and weaknesses, and he must be willing to learn from criticism.

- Display integrity

He must be honest, trustworthy and transparent in how he leads the team.

(Any 5 × 2) (10)

5.4 Ethical behaviour is behaviour which displays an awareness and practice of what is right and what is wrong. (1)

5.5
- Non-judgemental conduct

Team members should not make each other feel judged on any grounds (race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, age, language, etc.).

- Perseverance

The attitude of continuing to work towards the goal, even though it is difficult.

- Clear communication

Communication should be open and honest. Managers must communicate to team members on a level that they clearly understand the message. It can also include non-verbal communication such as eye contact or body language.

- Ethical values

If team members respect each other and treat each other in an ethical way, it will lead to them being more willing to work together.

- Positive attitudes

The attitude of every member affects all the other members of a team. A positive attitude is good for the team's overall achievement.

- Constructive, non-disruptive behaviour

Behaviour that work towards creating a team with members who respect each other and work well together. (Any 5 × 2) (10)

[35]

QUESTION 6

6.1
- To understand, plan and control the work.
- To instil a sense of ownership into each team member for their contribution towards the success of the project.
- To ensure that the work is broken down to a level where the work packages are easily understood.
- To break down the work so that it is possible to accurately estimate costs.
- To break down the work so that it can be easily scheduled and fit into its interdependencies with other work packages.
- To ensure that the project can start as early as possible (Any 5 × 1) (5)

6.2
- Fixed costs are costs that must be paid, regardless of what work is being done on the project.✓
  Example: Rent, labour (salaries), overheads✓
  (Direct management costs, direct labour costs, direct material costs, direct equipment costs, direct expenses, travel costs, legal fees, training and advertising)
- Variable costs are costs which may change during the course of the project✓
  Example: materials, hire of equipment, transport, resources, including part-time resources✓

(Also indirect management costs, indirect labour costs, indirect materials, indirect equipment, indirect expenses and facilities) (2 × 2) (4)

6.3
6.3.1 General
6.3.2 Confidential
6.3.3 Restricted
6.3.4 Confidential
6.3.5 Confidential
6.3.6 General

(6 × 1) (6)

6.4
- If Mrs Moiloa recognises performance, it will motivate the team members to continue working hard.
- Rewards in terms of prizes, bonuses or promotion help toward building the morale of the individual and team. (2 × 1) (2)

6.5
- Awards
- Prizes
- Public accolades
- Reports filed in team members' staff file (Any 3 × 1) (3)

6.6

MATRIX	FUNCTIONAL ORGANISATION STRUCTURE
•Each employee is directed by more than one manager •Each employee is assigned tasks by more than one manager, often in unrelated areas •Staff are not grouped together according to their roles •Each employee reports to more than one manager •Each employee fulfils roles in more than one area	• Each employee is directed by one manager only • Each employee is assigned tasks by one manager within a specific area • Staff are grouped together according to their roles and functions • Each employee reports to one manager only • Each employee fulfils a role in a defined, single area only

(5 × 2) (10)
[30]

TOTAL SECTION B: 130
GRAND TOTAL: 150

Copyright reserved