higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

MARKETING
NQF LEVEL 2

8 MARCH 2019

This marking guideline consists of 6 pages.

Copyright reserved

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

1.1 True
1.2 False
1.3 False
1.4 True
1.5 True
1.6 False
1.7 True
1.8 False
1.9 True
1.10 True

(10 × 1) [10]

QUESTION 2

2.1 D
2.2 H
2.3 J
2.4 G
2.5 B
2.6 I
2.7 C
2.8 E
2.9 A
2.10 F

(10 × 1) [10]

QUESTION 3

3.1 Marketing policy
3.2 Market segment
3.3 Mission statement
3.4 Distribution channel
3.5 Suburb
3.6 Green labels
3.7 Vision
3.8 Return on investment
3.9 Consumer orientation
3.10 Sample

(10 × 1) [10]

TOTAL SECTION A 30

SECTION B

QUESTION 4

4.1
- Hamburgers
- Cheeseburgers
- Chicken products
- French fries
- Soft drinks
- Milkshakes (Any 2 × 1) (2)

4.2 I'm lovin' it (1)

4.3
- Salads
- Smoothies
- Fish
- Fruit (Any 2 × 1) (2)

4.4
- They need it to be able to do business successfully
- They need to be aware of the likes, dislikes and attitudes of consumers
- It helps them to carefully watch the environment
- It helps to know how individual's choices and differences among people have an influence on marketing decisions
- It puts the market in a position to identify and define marketing opportunities (5 × 2) (10)

4.5
- Executive summary
  A short summary of the main objectives, decisions and recommendations in the actual marketing plan. It gives a short explanation of the marketing plan, the product or service that is offered, the competition, target market and expected sales.
- Company history, vision and mission
  The reader is introduced to the history of the business, how it was formed and developed and the future goals and objective of the business.
- Marketing mix
  It outlines the different activities involved in marketing that is product, price, promotion and place. A business must understand what the consumer needs and wants, mix the four Ps to satisfy consumers' needs, and sell the right product at the right price.
- Marketing budget
  It shows how much money a business will need and how much is available to cover its monthly expenses until profit is made. A budget will detail how much money will be spent on marketing.
- Summary
  The summary includes suggestions and recommendations on how the business will reach its goals and objectives.
- Conclusion
  The marketing plan must conclude by indicating why you think your business will be successful, why it will be able to do well financially and why someone must invest in it. (5 x 3) (15)

[30]

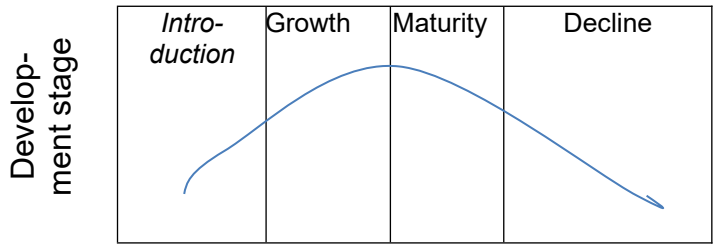

Copyright reserved

QUESTION 5

5.1 Logistics:

- is involved in the flow of money and information in the business
- organises the transportation of products to buyers
- assists with the storage of products in the warehouses
- moves products from manufacturers to consumers cost effectively and in time (4 × 2) (8)

5.2

(Award a mark for each stage)(4 × 2)

(8)

5.3 By taking on more activities than those in which they are currently involved (2)

5.4 Marketing strategy is a planned series of actions to achieve a business goal. (2)

5.5

- The supply of materials and services is important because it affects the profit of a business and the price charged to consumers.
- Their problems can seriously affect marketing.
- Delays and shortages in supply can add extra costs to a business.
- Consumers become unhappy if products are not supplied.
- Businesses can use more than one supplier to avoid disappointments.

(5 × 2) (10)

[30]

QUESTION 6

6.1
- By making ecologically safer products
- By producing recyclable or biodegradable packaging
- By using recycled materials and components
- By offering better pollution controls
- By providing more energy-efficient operations (5 × 2) (10)

6.2 They need a guideline on their product strategy,✓✓ distribution strategy,✓✓ promotion strategy✓✓ and price strategy✓✓ (4 x 2) (8)

6.3
- Standardisation and grading
- Promotion
- Product development
- Pricing/financing
- Storage
- Transportation
- Rearrangement
- Locating/identifying customers (Any 3 × 2) (6)

6.4
- Convenience products
- Shopping products/select products
- Speciality products
- Unsought products (4)

6.5 A marketing plan is a written list of the specific actions needed to achieve the objectives of the marketing strategy

OR

A marketing plan is a description of the marketing environment and the goals and objectives the business would like to achieve (2) [30]

QUESTION 7

7.1
- Production era
  This period is the 1920s when buyers were willing to accept any products available
- Sales era
  During this period, between the 1920s and 1960s, manufacturers found they could produce more products than buyers could consume, and competition grew more. Sales people were hired to find new buyers.
- Marketing era
  This period started in the early 1970s when businesses started to integrate marketing into their business.
- Consumer era
  Businesses focus on collecting information about consumers' needs and share it across departments, so they can create products consumers will buy. (8)

7.2 Stage 1: Preparing to do the research
Stage 2: Doing the primary research
Stage 3: Interpreting the research
Stage 4: Making the results of the research available (4 x 2) (8)

7.3
- A marketing plan is an overall business programme for selecting a market segment
- All elements of the marketing mix are taken into consideration
- It supports and contributes to reaching the business objectives
- It helps in identifying the SWOT elements (4 x 2) (8)

7.4
- Hiring, training and maintaining the right number of competent employees
- Look out for employees with problems that may affect how they do their job
- Ensures that employees are paid decent wages and salaries
- Promote good working habits and a positive attitude among employees

(Any 3 × 2) (6)
[30]

TOTAL SECTION B: 120
GRAND TOTAL: 150

Copyrights reserved