higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

MARKETING
NQF LEVEL 3

7 MARCH 2019

This marking guideline consists of 6 pages.

Copyright reserved

QUESTION 1

1.1	1.1.1	code of conduct
	1.1.2	budget
	1.1.3	product cycle
	1.1.4	Laggards
	1.1.5	activity
	1.1.6	Secondary data
	1.1.7	tabulating
	1.1.8	Suppliers/Redistributors/Middlemen
	1.1.9	barcode
	1.1.10	Telemarketing
			(10 × 1)	(10)
1.2	1.2.1	B
	1.2.2	B
	1.2.3	D
	1.2.4	B
	1.2.5	B
	1.2.6	D
	1.2.7	B
	1.2.8	B
	1.2.9	C
	1.2.10	D
			(10 × 1)	(10)
1.3	1.3.1	E
	1.3.2	I
	1.3.3	J
	1.3.4	B
	1.3.5	A
	1.3.6	D
	1.3.7	F
	1.3.8	C
	1.3.9	G
	1.3.10	H
			(10 × 1)	(10)
				[30]

Copyright reserved

ANSWERS FOR QUESTIONS 2 TO 5 ARE TO BE USED AS A GUIDELINE. MARKERS SHOULD CONSIDER ALL APPLICABLE ANSWERS.

QUESTION 2

2.1 Girls from preschool until teenage stage (2)

2.2
- Bratz
- Monster high
- Sophia the first
- Cinderella
- Doc Mcstuffins (Any relevant 3 × 2) (6)

2.3
- Development stage✓✓ – business decides to fund and develop the new product.✓ This is the stage where there is more expenditure than profit because the product is not yet in the market.✓ It is possible for the business to encounter a risk of losing their capital.
- Introduction stage✓✓ – making the product known to the public for the first time by means of launching the product.✓ The sale of the product may be slow at this stage as customers are not familiar with the products. The profit at this stage is not much.✓ Aggressive advertising is necessary.
- Growth stage✓✓ – customers are starting to accept and buy the product.✓ The organisation starts making a profit,✓ because customers are adapting to the product.
- Maturity stage✓✓ – product sale has reached its peak✓ and sales may start to drop because there are not many buyers. The organisation will have to spend more money to recruit new customers✓ to try to stay on the maturity stage.
- Decline stage – final stage in product life cycle, few customers buy the product and sales are decreasing. Organisation must decide whether to stop the production and introduce a new product. (Any 4 × 4) (16)

2.4 Maturity stage (2)

2.5 Marketing policy gives guidance on the following aspects:
- Type of product to be marketed
- Determination of product price
- Ways of marketing product
- Location where the product will be sold
- Whether to have credit or cash sales only (Any 2 × 2) (4)

[30]

QUESTION 3

3.1 Strength – First farm to produce fresh mushrooms✓✓
Mushrooms are alternative food for vegetarians

Weakness – Not have enough funds for mass production✓✓
Do not have transport

Opportunity – They want to expand throughout South Africa✓✓
Mushrooms have great potential and are perishable products

Threats – Sale of canned and frozen mushrooms✓✓
Climate challenges (Any relevant 4 × 2) (8)

3.2
- Demographic environment
- Economic environment
- Legal and political environment
- Social environment
- Technological environment
- Natural environment
- International environment (Any 5 × 2) (10)

3.3
- A marketing plan is a written document containing the guidelines for the organisation's marketing programmes over a certain period.
- A marketing activity plan is an action plan that includes details of how the organisation's products will be marketed. (2 × 2) (4)

3.4
- Time consuming
- Lack of experience and skilled employees to execute the market research thoroughly
- Misleading data because of untruths
- Only small sample interviewed
- Difficult to assess quality of research outside the organisation

(Any relevant 4 × 2) (8)
[30]

QUESTION 4

4.1
- Unhealthy products
- Giving false information
- Offensive advertising
- Unfair prices
- Misleading advertising (false) (Any 2 × 2) (4)

4.2
- Helps marketers decide on goals
- Assists managers in solving problems
- Provides information about changes to customers
- Helps in price-making decisions
- Helps in identifying new opportunities
- Helps in identifying competitors
- Gives information about the customer's needs
- Identifies unsatisfied needs (Any 5 × 2) (10)

4.3
- Time✓ – market research takes time and managers sometimes take decisions without doing the research because the results will be too late.✓
- Available data✓ – if managers feel that they have enough data to help them with decision making, they will not do the market research.✓
- Type of decision✓ – simple decisions can be made without market research but a decision like identifying the target market needs the managers to do market research before launching the product.✓
- Benefits and costs✓ – the managers must decide whether market research is going to benefit them in the long run. Market research at first can cost money with benefit being reaped later.✓
- Resources✓ – the organisation will need experienced people to conduct the market research. Sometimes the organisation may have qualified people but not money to conduct the research.✓ (5 × 2) (10)

4.4
- Exploratory research – used to explore a problematic situation. The idea is to give the managers information about the problem. It enables them to decide on the next step to overcome the problem.
- Conclusive research – formal report that provides information to assist managers to make decisions and choose the best action for the situation.

(2 × 3) (6)
[30]

QUESTION 5

5.1 5.1.1 It helps with allocating funds and deciding how much is needed for other projects in the organisation.

5.1.2 It assists in deciding what kind of products are to be produced and how many. It can also help to know what to add to the products to make it more useful for customers.

5.1.3 It helps in distribution of the products like delivery to different shops.

5.1.4 It helps in deciding how many employees must be hired to execute the project.

(4 × 2) (8)

5.2
- Being honest with others in the organisation
- Producing safe products
- Being honest with the public
- Obeying laws, such as the law about health and safety at work
- Telling the truth about one's education and work experience
- Not harming the environment/anyone in the organisation (Any 5 × 2) (10)

5.3
- Ensure the report is neatly typed.
- Provide a suitable title.
- Provide information in logical order.
- Use subheadings.
- Check the spelling, grammar and punctuation.
- Use a suitable format.
- Make a cover for the report. (Any 4 × 2) (8)

5.4
- Observation
- Surveys (in the form of questionnaires)
- Group interviews (Any 2 × 2) (4)

[30]

TOTAL: 150

Copyright reserved