N

higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
NQF LEVEL 4

22 NOVEMBER 2019

This marking guideline consists of 7 pages.

Copyright reserved

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

1.1	1.1.1	Complaints
	1.1.2	Price
	1.1.3	Perception
	1.1.4	Real
	1.1.5	Non-referral
	1.1.6	Early adopters
	1.1.7	Hesitation
	1.1.8	Supermarkets
	1.1.9	Nonverbal
	1.1.10	Centralised

(10 × 1) [10]

1.2	1.2.1	B
	1.2.2	A
	1.2.3	C
	1.2.4	D
	1.2.5	C
	1.2.6	C
	1.2.7	B
	1.2.8	B
	1.2.9	A
	1.2.10	B

(10 × 1) [10]

1.3	1.3.1	False
	1.3.2	True
	1.3.3	True
	1.3.4	True
	1.3.5	False
	1.3.6	False
	1.3.7	True
	1.3.8	True
	1.3.9	False
	1.3.10	False

(10 × 1) [10]

TOTAL SECTION A: [30]

Copyright reserved

SECTION B

QUESTION 2

2.1 2.1.1 5% (1)

2.1.2 Lack or poor customer services
Rudeness and bad attitude (2)

2.2
- Glide to leg✓ – This describes a deft way of dealing with a complaint without addressing the underlying problem. The company provides an explanation, an apology, a free sample or a refund.✓
- Nodding dogs✓ – Firms proclaim their desire for customer feedback by disseminating customer comment cards, mailshots and advertising messages.✓
- Reactive rhinos✓ – Companies react to complaints from important or influential clients, but adopt a less responsive attitude to minor clients.✓
- Pathfinders✓– Firms encourage customers to complain and they work hard at treating the underlying problems. Rather than waiting for dissatisfied customers to get in touch with them, they actively seek them out and find out what is making them unhappy.✓ (Any 3 × 2) (6)

2.3 2.3.1
- Improved inventory control
- Improved utilisation of shelf space
- Improved productivity of cash registers
- Accurate price indicators
- Removes need for price marking
- Eliminates human error
- Reduces staff training, it takes only few minutes to master how to use a hand scanner
- Barcodes are extremely versatile
- Data obtained is obtained rapidly
- Barcode are inexpensive and user friendly (Any 5 × 1) (5)

2.3.2 (a) 23456- represent the manufacturer's number
(b) 78901- product code (2 × 2) (4)

2.4 Right to:
- Be heard
- Safety and warnings
- Choose from a selection of goods
- Receive accurate information
- Education
- To complain (Any 4 × 1) (4)

2.5 2.5.1 It is a technique where every customer who buys at one store/department is seen as a potential buyer✓ in another department and gets referred to other departments.✓

2.5.2 It implies that the salesperson scans the personal columns of daily newspapers✓ for consumers who may be interested in his/her products.✓

(2 × 2) (4)

2.6
- Specialised activities are performed
- Location advantage
- Reduction in the number of transactions
- Financial advantages
- Storage advantages
- Increase communication
- A more equitable distribution of goods throughout the market
- Intermediaries facilitates the transaction between members
- They resolve problems between suppliers/ producers and wholesalers

(Any 4 × 1) (4)
[30]

QUESTION 3

3.1 3.1.1 F
3.1.2 E
3.1.3 G
3.1.4 C
3.1.5 D

(5 × 1) (5)

3.2 3.2.1 Burger King (1)

3.2.2 Descriptive brand – the words in the name describe✓ the product and the brand name says more about the brand✓ (2)

3.2.3 Yes✓. They all sell same product. i.e. burgers✓ (2)

3.3
- Personal introduction
- Letter of introduction
- Phone call from client
- Client's business card
- Use client's name
- Wait for client to talk to referral
- Client gives a name but client says the representative cannot use his name.

(Any 5 × 1) (5)

3.4 Manufacturer brands: Hoover, Kodak, Diesel, Dove, Colgate Plax, etc.
(Any TWO relevant brand owned by the producer) (2)

Copyright reserved

3.5
- The product does not do what it is supposed to do
- The product is broken
- The product is difficult or confusing to use
- The organisation service is very bad or very slow.
- The service department is not helpful
- They not treated properly
- They do not like being addressed rudely or abruptly
- They do not like being ignored. (Any 5 × 1) (5)

3.6
- Private or personal matters
- Does not want to hurt the salesperson's feelings by not buying
- Feels uncomfortable to reveal the real reasons
- Feels the salesperson's presentation is too bad to listen to any longer
- The wrong time for a prospect to buy but does not want the salesperson to realise that this is the reason. (5)

3.7
- Refuses to talk
- Finds fault with everything
- Criticises
- Voices objections
- Sarcasm
- Excuses
- Negative remarks (Any 3 × 1) (3)

[30]

QUESTION 4

4.1
- Establish decision-making criteria/Information search
- Develop alternative solutions
- Analyse the data
- Decide/take action
- Make follow-up decision (5)

4.2
- The customer should be allowed to finish his/her conversation without interruptions.
- The salesperson should concentrate on the facts the customer is giving.
- The salesperson should evaluate the customer's appearance, actions, tone of voice and opinions objectively and not criticise them in his mind.
- Sincere interest should be shown.
- The salesperson can try to summarise in his/her mind what the customer is saying.
- He/she should try to prevent external noises.
- Take note of the customer's body language.
- He should not think about personal things while listening to the customer (5)

Copyright reserved

4.3
- Generation of alternative✓ – Consider different ways of dealing with the problem before deciding on a specific solution.✓
- Reverse method✓ – Take things as they are, turn them around, inside out, upside down, back to front to see what happens.✓
- Brainstorming✓ – Get more ideas by listening to other people's ideas.✓
- Suspended judgement✓ – Wait before passing judgement and thereby giving other people a chance to present their ideas✓.
- Fractionating✓– breaking down the problem into smaller parts then put them together in a different order.✓
- Challenging assumptions ✓– a fixed way of dealing with a problem, a habit which does not question why we do things.✓
- The 'why' technique ✓– if we ask 'why?' we could find out that we have no good reasons for doing things in a particular way. This could open the door for more creative ideas.✓ (Any 5 × 2) (10)

4.4
4.4.1 Security
4.4.2 Containment/Agglomeration
4.4.3 Speciality
4.4.4 Kaleidoscopic
(4 × 2) (8)

4.5 Flora margarine tastes similar to Stork
Coke tastes similar to Pepsi (Any relevant comparison) (2)
[30]

QUESTION 5

5.1
- Anticipating consumer needs and buying patterns and passing the information to manufacturers.✓ Wholesalers have to buy the correct mixture of products and have to be knowledgeable.✓
- Selling, sales promotion and other forms of marketing communication✓ – Advertising of products are done via catalogues, brochures and pamphlets.✓
- Financing✓ – It often occurs indirectly by paying on or before delivery and selling on credit.✓
- Storage/warehousing✓ – They stock a large variety of products and stock control is needed.✓
- Bulk breaking✓ – They buy in bulk and obtain quantity discounts.✓
- Buy from manufacturer, producer or processor in large volumes, then break them down into smaller shipments for their customers.✓
- Transportation✓ – They serve a small geographical area and provide faster delivery to retailers.✓
- Risk bearing, by carrying out the tasks on behalf of manufacturers.
(Any 5 × 2) (10)

5.2
- Horizontal✓ – occurs when there is conflict between intermediaries of the same kind✓
- Crosswise/Diagonal✓– occurs when there is conflict between different types of intermediaries on the same distribution level✓
- Vertical✓– occurs when there is conflict between intermediaries who (6)

operate at different levels of distribution✓ (3 × 2)

5.3
- Income
- Willingness to buy
- Utility acquired (3)

5.4
- Representative gets names of prospects from existing customers/clients and colleagues.
- A satisfied customer refers his friends or acquaintances to the salesperson. (2 × 2) (4)

5.5
- Rude salespeople
- They do not greet customers
- Some salespeople are too eager
- Salesperson who look customers up and down
- Tasteless clothes
- Some salespersons' personal appearance offends customers
- A salesperson has a don't care attitude
- Customers are not served immediately
- Using poor language
- Unprofessional salespeople who shout or yell across the sales floor to get the attention of a colleague.
- Salespeople with a don't-care attitude
- They make a dash for customers the moment they enter the store
- Teenagers complain about salespeople not taking them seriously
- Salespeople ignore customers while serving others
- When salesperson doesn't wear a uniform, it makes matters even worse and can easily result in customers walking out.
- They pursue customers who have clearly indicated that they want to browse around first. (Any 7 × 1) (7)

[30]

TOTAL SECTION B: 120
GRAND TOTAL: 150

Copyright reserved