MARKING GUIDELINE

MARKS: 80

Marking guideline for the Academic Central Grade 11 English FAL Paper 1 practice examination.

Written by Academic Central for practice, following the CAPS curriculum for Grade 11. It is not a Department of Basic Education marking guideline.

How to mark: each ✓ is one mark. Accept answers in the learner's own words that show the same understanding. Open-ended questions: reward well-supported answers.

SECTION A

1.1 Readers might expect young people at computers late at night to be playing games ✓; the writer corrects this to show they are doing something serious and productive ✓. (2)

1.2 Sleeping is not a profession ✓; he is making fun of himself for doing nothing all day, as if being idle were his job ✓. (2)

1.3 Data was too expensive ✓. (1)

1.4 He could use a computer after closing time ✓ in exchange for building the café a website ✓. It was fair: Kagiso got free access and the owner got a website without paying ✓. (3)

1.5 No one is charged money ✓, but every member must share what they learn with others ✓. (2)

1.6 Open-ended: a clear position ✓ with a well-explained reason ✓✓, e.g. Yes, explaining something forces you to understand it fully and shows the gaps in your knowledge. (3)

1.7 Any THREE: a spaza shop ✓; a hair salon ✓; a funeral parlour ✓; a soccer club; a catering business (3)

1.8 Any TWO: the group is genuine and does real work ✓; it is welcoming / willing to teach anyone ✓; it can change people's minds (2)

1.9 A plaster covers a wound but does not heal what is seriously wrong ✓; the critics mean such groups help a little but do not fix the deeper problems in education and job creation ✓. (2)

1.10 Choosing to do nothing is also a choice with consequences ✓; if he waits for the system to change, he loses time and opportunities ✓. (2)

1.11 Mostly positive / balanced ✓. Positive: it describes the group's successes, e.g. members earning money and a learnership ✓. Balanced: it also mentions problems (load shedding, cold) and the critics' view ✓. (3)

1.12 The group meets at night, after the shops close ✓, and the members learn to write code ✓. (2)

1.13 Open-ended: a clear view ✓ supported by realistic reasons about the learner's community ✓✓ (e.g. access to computers, data costs, safety at night, interest of young people). (3)

SECTION B

7 points ✓ (1 each) + 3 for language. Sample answer:

1. Research the company and what it does. ✓
2. Prepare examples that show your skills. ✓

3. Practise answering questions aloud. ✓
4. Prepare your own questions for the interviewer. ✓
5. Choose neat, suitable clothes. ✓
6. Pack your CV, ID and certificates in a folder. ✓
7. Plan your route and arrive early. ✓

(43 words) Also accept: switch off your phone; greet politely, make eye contact and smile.

SECTION C

QUESTION 3

3.1 People who drink alcohol and drive, especially young adults going out on weekends ✓. (1)

3.2 "Last" can mean the final drink of the evening ✓, but also the final drink or drive of a person's life, because they could die in a crash ✓. (2)

3.3 To show that the words are what drunk drivers say about themselves ✓, and that their judgement is wrong / sarcasm ✓. (2)

3.4 Repetition (parallelism) / short sentences ✓; it is easy to remember and builds a shocking, dramatic effect ✓. (2)

3.5 By fear ✓. It reminds readers that people die ✓ ("never make it home", "your last anything"), shocking them into changing their behaviour ✓. (3)

[10]

QUESTION 4

4.1 A period of time when you stop using phones and other digital devices ✓. (1)

4.2 She uses her phone to post on social media ✓ about not using her phone, which is the opposite of a detox ✓. (2)

4.3 She cares more about attention and approval on social media ✓ than about really changing her habits / she is not serious about the detox ✓. (2)

4.4 As a contrast to Zola ✓: Lindo is actually doing what the detox intends, enjoying life without a phone ✓. (2)

4.5 Open-ended: a view ✓ with a reasoned explanation ✓✓. (3)

[10]
