MARKS: 60

Marking guideline for the Academic Central Grade 8 English First Additional Language paper 2 · literature.

Written by Academic Central for practice, following the CAPS curriculum for Grade 8. It is not a Department of Basic Education marking guideline.

How to mark: each ✓ is one mark. Accept answers in the learner's own words when the meaning is correct. For open-ended and "explain" questions, credit any answer that is supported by the text.

SECTION A: SHORT STORY

QUESTION 1

1.1 A twelve-year-old child (Sello's cousin) who tells the story in the first person ✓ (1)

1.2 In Zone 4, Mamelodi ✓ (1)

1.3 Any TWO: he was the angriest man in Mamelodi ✓; he kept every ball that went over his wall ✓; he had a room full of their balls; he counted the balls at night (2)

1.4 Simile ✓. A dragon guards and counts its treasure greedily ✓; the children saw him as a frightening, selfish monster who hoarded what belonged to others ✓. (3)

1.5 It was a brand-new birthday present, the narrator's first real leather ball ✓ (1)

1.6 Expected: piles (a room) of stolen balls / an angry man ✓. Found: a large, neat vegetable garden and Mr Nkosi lying unconscious ✓. (2)

1.7 Sello usually does not listen or behave responsibly (he is naughty or careless) ✓ (1)

1.8 Kind / caring / responsible / brave ✓ – the narrator looked after the garden of a man everyone feared, without being asked or paid ✓. (2)

1.9 Any TWO: neat labels on each row ✓; tomatoes tied to wooden sticks ✓; the exercise book with names and dates; neat rows of vegetables (2)

1.10 He already knew it was true (he could see the wet soil), so he was stating a fact, not asking ✓ (1)

1.11 Children were trampling (stepping on) his young plants when they came for their balls ✓ (1)

1.12 The children believed Mr Nkosi was cruel and selfish ✓, but in fact he was growing vegetables to feed children at a children's home – the opposite of what they thought ✓. (2)

1.13 The open gate symbolises welcome / friendship / trust ✓; the barrier between Mr Nkosi and the children has been removed ✓. (2)

1.14 At first the narrator fears him and believes the rumours ✓; by the end the narrator respects him and wants to help him ✓. (2)

1.15 Any suitable theme with explanation, e.g. do not judge people by rumours or appearances ✓ – people are often kinder than they seem / kindness is repaid with kindness ✓ (2)

SECTION C: DRAMA

QUESTION 3

3.1 In a Grade 8 classroom ✓ during break on the day before the class election ✓ (2)

3.2 Tumi spread a false rumour that Naledi copied her project ✓, to win the election; Naledi wants to clear her name ✓. (2)

3.3 Her sweetness is fake ✓; her words ("Very … colourful") are sarcastic and show that she looks down on Naledi and is not sorry ✓. (2)

3.4 "People will believe what they want to believe." ✓ (accept "I only shared what I heard.") (1)

3.5 She will bring all her research notes for anyone to read ✓ (1)

3.6 The audience knows that the teacher is listening while Tumi and Naledi do not (dramatic irony) ✓; this builds tension because we wait to see Tumi caught out ✓. (2)

3.7 She is shocked (and afraid) because the teacher heard everything ✓ (1)

3.8 She stands by her values and stays honest ✓ even when it is difficult / she is a person of integrity ✓. (2)

3.9 Do not spread rumours online ✓; messages can hurt people and you can be held responsible for what you post or share ✓. (2)
