higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

CLIENT SERVICE AND HUMAN RELATIONS
NQF LEVEL 4

27 FEBRUARY 2019

This marking guideline consists of 9 pages.

Copyright reserved

QUESTION 1

1.1
1.1.1 C
1.1.2 H
1.1.3 L
1.1.4 I
1.1.5 A
1.1.6 F
1.1.7 K
1.1.8 B
1.1.9 G
1.1.10 E

(10 × 1) (10)

1.2
- It will cause damage/poor image to the company.
- Clients will be dissatisfied.
- Dissatisfied clients may decide to go elsewhere.
- Clients will feel less valued/less important.
- Clients will feel that the organisation does not regard their problems as important enough to be handled promptly and by the right person.
- Complaints will not be attended to accordingly.
- It will take longer to find a solution.
- The client will be inclined to think that the hotel is not run effectively on all levels.

(Any 5 × 1) (5)

1.3
1.3.1 Reservation/Booking department
1.3.2 Human resource
1.3.3 Accounts
1.3.4 Marketing
1.3.5 Accounts
1.3.6 Maintenance

(6 × 1) (6)

1.4
- Arrival time and date
- Departure time and date
- The form of transport that will be used
- Where will they stop/the pick-up point.
- What they need to bring with them
- Activities they will do
- Type of accommodation
- Special needs/requests
- Dietary considerations

(Any 5 × 1) (5)

1.5
- make eye contact
- take notes
- avoid distraction
- nod your head
- ask questions
- restate key ideas

(6 × 1) (6)

Copyright reserved

1.6
- Feedback from clients
- Feedback from colleagues
- Appraisal by management
- Self-evaluation (4)

1.7
- Good communication starts with a friendly greeting.
- Pay attention to the needs of the client.
- Offer prompt√, polite and efficient responses where needed.
- Use appropriate non-verbal communication. (Any 4 × 1) (4)

[40]

QUESTION 2

2.1 2.1.1 Potential clients
2.1.2 Internal clients
2.1.3 External clients
(3 × 1) (3)

2.2
- They contribute efficiently to organisational goals.
- They complete complex work/projects rapidly.
- They respect other team members' thoughts and opinions.
- They accept responsibility. (3 × 1) (3)

2.3 2.3.1 B
2.3.2 C
2.3.3 C
2.3.4 B
2.3.5 A
2.3.6 C
2.3.7 D
2.3.8 A
2.3.9 B
2.3.10 D
(10 × 1) (10)

2.4
- It ensures that clients feel that they are dealing with a good business.
- New clients may be attracted if clients tell their friends and family about the excellent service they received. /increase in word of mouth
- Clients will overlook any smaller problems that may arise during the course of doing business.
- It leads to fewer client complaints.
- It leads to repeated business/increased revenue.
- Will create a good image of the business.
- The client will feel that they are getting value for money. (Any 5 × 1) (5)

2.5 2.5.1
- Apologise for not allowing him/her to smoke according to organisational requirements.
- Explain to him/her that law prohibits smoking in some rooms/areas due to customers who do not smoke.
- Indicate that the hotel has designated smoking areas available if a smoking room is not available.
- If guests are allowed to smoke in any room, non-smoking guests will not be satisfied. (Any 3 × 1) (3)

2.5.2
- Explain the liquor law with regards to not being allowed to serve the boy.
- Indicate that children under the age of eighteen may not be served alcohol.
- Show through body language that you are not being rude but just obeying the law. (3)

2.6
- Radio
- Television
- Cinema
- Internet (Any 3 × 1) (3)

2.7 2.7.1
- Brochures
- Listings in guide books and directories
- Inflight magazines
- Newspapers
- Direct mail advertising (Any 4 × 1) (4)

2.7.2
- The products and services listed are suitable however there are additional facilities that may be required especially for children.
- The facilities listed cater largely for adults and show no activities to keep children entertained.
- The hotel could add products and services such as baby sitting, a play room, and outdoor activities for children, interaction with petting animals etc.
- Additional items needed may include extra mattresses or cots, menus for kids, swimming pool suitable for children etc. ✓

(Any 4 relevant points showing evaluation of the products and services related to the context provided) (4)

2.7.3
- Conference facilities
- Meeting rooms
- Business centre – computers, internet, printing facilities

(Any 2 × 1) (2)

[40]

QUESTION 3

3.1
- Customer-friendly attitude✓ toward clients that is real and not false.
- Communication to establish good relationships with clients.✓
- Clients must experience a positive impression√ when they come into contact with the company.
- Continuous training of staff.✓
- Providing clients with feedback after they have participated in surveys.√
- Taking a top-down approach/management should be involved in what is taking place in the organisation.✓ (6)

3.2
- It becomes easy to know what has been done with regards to the complaint/request.✓
- It makes it easy to take further appropriate action should there be a need for follow-up.✓
- It ensures that if a complaint relates to another department, feedback will be given to the relevant department.✓
- It ensures that the details are not forgotten✓ and complete information can be passed on.✓
- It helps in case one wants to refer back to the problem.✓
- It helps to establish trends in terms of guest requests that reoccur so that action can be taken. ✓ (Any 6 × 1) (6)

3.3
- They help in specifying employee goals.
- They indicate the best method to perform a task.
- They show which aspects of a task are most important.
- They outline how individuals should be rewarded.
- In order that employees take the same/uniform action is certain situations.

(Any 4 × 1) (4)

3.4
- Companies must produce products and services if the environment permits them to do so.✓
- The air-travel industry is responsible for the formation of greenhouse gases which impacts negatively on the environment.✓
- Air travellers must find ways to reduce their carbon footprint✓ and use alternative ways to reach their destinations.
- As the awareness of preserving the environment increases, companies must get approval by means of undertaking environmental impact assessments before they can build in sensitive areas which will destroy part of the environment.✓
- Hotels need to consider noise levels when they renovate or refurbish.✓
- Province/area experiencing drought must alert clients to water saving methods.✓
- Tourists must be made aware that when visiting attractions they should not remove or disturb the vegetation or coral in the sea.✓ (Any 4 × 1) (4)

Copyright reserved

3.5
- Floods
- Illness
- Fires
- Explosions
- Chemical contamination
- Civil disturbance
- Accidents
- Workplace violence resulting in bodily harm (Any 6 × 1) (6)

3.6
- How to assess the potential for accidents and emergencies
- How to prevent incidents and its associated environmental impact
- How to report and document emergencies and responses
- Plans and procedures for responding to incidents
- Periodic testing of emergency plans and procedures
- Details of possible emergencies, consequences, required actions and procedures to follow
- Details of emergency personnel
- Evacuation route maps or fire escapes (Any 6 × 1) (6)

3.7.1
- Lives could have been lost
- The company could face legal action/be sued for negligence
- The wrong back up team could be called e.g. bomb squad instead of fire and rescue.
- This can result in chaos
- Lead to loss of finances
- More people could be injured due to chaos. (Any 4 × 1) (4)

3.7.2
- Police
- First aiders
- Firefighters
- Ambulance/Rescue service workers/ Emergency response team
- Doctors (Any 4 × 1) (4)

[40]

QUESTION 4

4.1 4.1.1
- The person should receive prompt professional medical attention.
- The charred clothes of the person should not be removed.
- Cover the burn areas with a dressing or towel.
- Keep the burned hands higher than the heart.
- Burned feet and legs should be kept elevated.
- The casualty should not be allowed to walk.
- Carefully watch for breathing difficulties.
- Keep the persons airway open.
- Get the person to hospital as fast as possible.
- While you are waiting you can give the person sips of water to drink/weak salt solution. (Any 5 × 1) (5)

4.2 4.2.1
- Try to remain calm.
- Do not challenge, annoy, plead or bargain with the captors.
- Attempt to escape only if you are certain that professional help is on the way.
- Do not panic.
- These types of situations may take many hours, even days to resolve.
- When you are released, walk away steadily with your arms raised distinguish you from your captors. (Any 5 × 1) (5)

4.2.1
- Stay calm and do not do anything that may encourage irrational behaviour.
- Do not handle the package.
- Keep evidence such as threat documents and envelopes by placing them in a bag that will be handed to the police.
- Evacuate the building leaving doors and windows open and assist the disabled to evacuate.
- Move to the nominated evacuation assembly point. (5)

4.3 4.3.1 hypertension
4.3.2 rupture
4.3.3 slurred speech
4.3.4 angina pectoris
4.3.5 clot
4.3.6 paralysis
4.3.7 heartburn
4.3.8 laceration
4.3.9 haemorrhage
4.3.10 puncture

(10 × 1) (10)

4.4
- Do not touch electrical appliances with wet hands.
- Do not use a landline telephone or touch any poorly wired or connected appliances during an electrical storm.
- Only use an extension cord rated to handle the current an appliance will use.
- Do not leave extension cords lying around.
- Shut off the power before working on a circuit.
- Unplug an appliance before servicing it.
- Do not overload circuits or extension cords.
- Replace frayed or broken cords.
- Do not insert anything into an electric circuit other than an electric plug which is in good condition. (5 × 1) (5)

4.5
- Do not move the victim.
- Ensure adequate breathing.
- Control bleeding. (3)

4.6 4.6.1 (a) Place direct pressure over the wound by pulling a clean pad over the wound and pressing firmly.
Maintain compression by wrapping the wound with a pressure bandage. (2)

(b) Elevate the wound above the level of the heart. (1)

(c) Put pressure on the nearest pressure points to slow the flow of blood to the wound. (1)

4.6.2
- Rapid, shallow breathing
- Cold pale skin
- Failure to respond to simple commands
- Dilated pupils (Any 3 × 1) (3)

[40]

QUESTION 5

5.1

TRAINING NEEDS	ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES
•arriving late for work •incomplete tasks •poor listening skills •lack of problem-solving skills •failure to operate a photocopy machine (Any 4 × 1)	•lack of support from company •lack of resources •offices with no windows •disagreements and arguments •low wages (Any 4 × 1)

(4 × 2) (8)

5.2 5.2.1 Performance issues are problems✓ that get in the way when employees are trying to do their job.✓

5.2.2 Observation means watching✓ a person executing a task with the purpose of obtaining✓ information.

5.2.3 An interview is a conversation or discourse✓ with an individual to obtain factual information.✓

5.2.4 Job variation means that employees receive training in a variety of jobs✓ to prepare them for multitasking.✓

(4 × 2) (8)

5.3 5.3.1 Provide better salaries/incentives/motivation
5.3.2 Provide necessary tools/resources/equipment
5.3.3 Provide training/information sessions on the products and services.
5.3.4 Have a one-on-one with the staff member/have a training/information session on the code of conduct.
5.3.5 Improve the working schedules/rectify unfair workloads
5.3.6 Provide training on time management. (6 × 1) (6)

5.4 5.4.1 To find out what the employees liked about a particular training programme and what they felt they gained through it

5.4.2 To assess what the employee can remember of the training programme

5.4.3 To assess how the employee performs practically

5.4.4 To assess the practical application in the workplace of what has been learnt

(4 × 1) (4)

5.5
- Observation
- Staff evaluation and interviews
- Customer feedback
- Employee feedback (4)

5.6 5.6.1 True
5.6.2 False
5.6.3 True
5.6.4 True
5.6.5 True

(5 × 1) (5)

5.7
- The manager can provide on the job training during office hours or after hours.
- The staff member can be enrolled to do a short course on a weekend or on a part time basis.
- The staff member can register to do an online course.
- The staff member can job shadow a fellow worker.
- The staff member can be coached by the manager.

(Any 5 relevant answers) (5)

[40]

TOTAL: 200

Copyright reserved