QUESTION 2

Read the extract below and answer the questions.

REASONS NOT TO MISS THE 2019 CAPE TOWN FOOD FESTIVAL

Woodstock will be the place to be this weekend for the Cape Town leg of the Visa Street Food Festival.

We've rounded up two highlights:

1. Food studio conference

   This one-day conference aims to change the way we think about food.

   ExperGreat food, workshops and talks from the likes of Sarah Keogh and Tommy Werner of Put An Egg On It, a revered New York magazine about food and cooking.

   Contributors to the magazine include writers, poets, musicians and artists. The recipes are gathered from chefs, artists, grandmothers and friends, each telling the story of the creation of their favourite dish.

2. The vendors

   The weekend markets will boast 30 street food stalls. They range from The Nob, Grub and it's not Made in China to the Knickerboxer Ice Cream Company and the Wicket Waffle to mention only a few.

[Source: www.timeslive.co.za]

2.1 A budget is a helpful tool that serves as a guide to the events manager in making sound financial decisions regarding the event. An event budget must list the money that is spent on hosting the event and also the income that is expected to be generated from bringing such a festival to the public and participating businesses.
You have been employed as an events assistant for the upcoming Food Studio Conference at the Visa Street Food Festival

Consider TWO cost (expense) items and TWO revenue (income) items to be budgeted for the Food Festival. Copy the table below in your ANSWER BOOK and complete it. (4 × 2) (8)

BUDGET: VISA STREET FOOD FESTIVAL
INCOME items	EXPENSE items

2.2 At the Food Festival, refreshments are also part of the menu and usually refer to the drinks (alcoholic and non-alcoholic) that are for sale and to be consumed together with or between meals for the duration of the festival.

Each of the vendors (mentioned above) will have to prepare the specific food they will offer to the people attending the Food Festival. As the events assistant to this festival, you must ensure each vendor communicate to you precisely what they intend selling to the public. Should vendors sell and/or serve refreshments, the necessary logistical arrangements must also be communicated to you beforehand so that all their needs and requirements to offer refreshments can be organised and finalised well in time before the Food Festival starts.
Since you have planned and invited 30 food stalls to participate in the event, you have decided to create a list detailing important aspects regarding the refreshments each vendor has to remember and consider.
Apply your mind and generate FIVE important aspects that each food vendor has to consider with regard to their specific refreshments needs and how they will blend these needs with what food they will be offering during the Food Festival. (5 × 2) (10)

2.3 Ms Rama is the sales manager of Cape Town Food Festival and needs to present a sales report to the rest of the management team showing the Sales and Marketing Department's performance over the first three months of the year. Since the Food Festival has been a huge success, Ms Rama has asked you to assist her in finalising the sales report she is to present at her next management meeting. To this end, she asked you to meet with her tomorrow morning at 09:00 in her office to run through with her the various steps she has to bear in mind while writing her report. She does not want to exclude any phases as the timeframe is limited and she cannot afford to be delayed. The report must be correct from the start.

Prepare and produce a brief summary of the various steps and phases that Ms Rama should follow when writing her report. For greater clarity on each phase, also provide a brief description of each step.
Use the format below and copy it into your ANSWER BOOK. Create extra rows to accommodate your answers. Thereafter complete it for presentation to Ms Rama in the morning.

3.2 Good time management skills are not only useful when dealing with clients in a professional manner but also in every other area of your life.

As Human Resources Clerk at SLM Milling, you have been asked to give a short power point presentation on Good Time Management Skills at the next general staff meeting on 15 March 2019. You decided to focus on good time management skills in a person's private life. Since a good habit is hard to break and those habits will spill over into the workplace it means that if you apply those personal time management skills at the workplace, it will surely benefit the company as well.

To prepare your power point slides, write down FIVE important aspects on how a person's personal time management skills can be incorporated in your everyday life as an employee at SLM Milling (5 × 2) (10)

3.3 Read the following scenario and answer the question.

Consider the planning of a wedding as an example. When you start planning a wedding, the first thing you do is collect information about weddings in general. You look at pictures in magazines, read what various brides and wedding planners' opinions and ideas are on wedding venues, dresses, caterers, different types of wedding cakes and you listen to advice from married friends on the do's and don'ts, which service providers to use and which ones to avoid. The key to all the above is that you consider and weigh things up against one another. In other words you evaluate the various aspects that are so important to the success of a once in a lifetime event such as a wedding!

3.3.1 Briefly discuss THREE key times (time periods or time frames) during which one would evaluate an event (3 × 2) (6)
Hint: A discussion of each is required

3.3.2 Briefly explain TWO types of evaluation. (2 × 2) (4)
Hint: An explanation of each type is required [30]

QUESTION 4

4.1 Read the following scenario and answer the question.

As an event assistant, your company will depend on your knowledge and research to consider which venue will be best suited for any event you are planning and whether a specific event meets (any of) their requirements. Therefore, for an upcoming conference you are busy organising, you have gathered and shortlisted three (3) venues from your surrounding areas and came up with the following information: Mountain View Conference Centre which can accommodate 100 delegates. It has 3 conference rooms with full conference facilities and other facilities include 100 double size bedrooms where delegates can overnight. The venue is easily accessible as it is on the outskirts of town. The second facility is River Hotel which can accommodate 80 delegates and includes 2 conference rooms. Delegates need to bring their own audio-visual equipment. The destination is 10 km out of town but offers a shuttle service. River Hotel has 40 double bedrooms. The last venue is Brook Lodge which can accommodate 70 delegates as day visitors as it has only accommodation on site for 20 people. It has one large conference room. It has no audio-visual equipment for use on site. Delegates will have to supply their own AV equipment and flip-chart stands and paper. To reach this venue, one has to travel 80 km out of town. To accommodate additional visitors or delegates (when there is a need for increased accommodation), there is a guest farm 5 km away from Brook Lodge that has accommodation for an additional 30 people. All venues have a full on-site catering service.

Complete the table in ADDENDUM B (attached) to provide an overview of venues available for conferences.
Hint: Do not forget to hand it in with your ANSWER BOOK (18)

4.2 Read the scenario and answer the question.

When the company you work for recently did a training survey amongst the sales staff, it became apparent that most of the sales staff indicated they need additional training in how to handle and deal with customers in an effective manner.
The outcome of the survey was further strengthened by the fact that more and more customer complaints are entered weekly in the customer complaints file.

Against the background of the information above, Ms Tshimange, the Sales Training Manager at SLM Milling where you work as Human Resources Clerk have asked your advice. Ms Tshimange wants to design a short training programme for the sales staff on customer service. The information (feedback) from unhappy customers have included that the company's products are of a poor quality, customer complaints are not being dealt with and that sales staff are abrupt and rude to customers.

Inform and provide Ms Tshimange with FOUR suggestions on how this customer training programme has a new focus and how this programme will ensure that SLM Milling will be able to turn their poor customer service into a winning formula. (4 × 2) (8)

4.3 In any organisation's calendar it is very important to obtain accurate financial information over and also within certain periods of time.

Name TWO important timeframes over which the recording of finances for a business must happen for reporting purposes. (2 × 2) (4)

QUESTION 5

Read the extract below and answer the questions.

Report writing is a constant process of writing and rewriting. More often possible changes to reports are needed. Mary, who works as an office administrator at SLM Milling, has to compile various reports for her manager. She approaches you for advice.

5.1 Advise Mary on FOUR ways she can make changes to and revise the reports she has to write. (4 × 2) (8)

5.2 List FIVE characteristics you think should be embodied or be reflected in the reports that Mary will be writing after talking to you. (5 × 2) (10)

5.3 The table below shows four concepts that are constantly being used in the world of finance and office administration. Can you distinguish clearly between each of them so that the basic meaning of each is clear.
Copy the table in your ANSWER BOOK and write your answers in the appropriate space.
HINT: Do NOT give any examples. No marks will be scored where examples are given

Income Statement	Current liabilities	Balance sheet	Owner's equity

(4 × 2) (8)

5.4 Why is so much importance given and attached to a critical path when it is applied in so many jobs in the world of work? (2)

5.5 You work at SLM Milling. The company wants to promote their products via the medium of outdoor advertising while some managers are against this decision. Defend the use of outdoor advertising by focusing on TWO advantages of this advertising medium. (2)

QUESTION 6

You (on behalf of your college where you work) bought a Laser Jet M402dn printer from Nashua two weeks ago. Two days after you bought it, the printer stopped working. You contacted the sales representative Mr Ivan Selznick and after telling him about the faulty printer you had just bought, he said that he would exchange it for another printer (same type and model).
He assured you that a new printer would be delivered to your college. After waiting for three days, you again contacted the sales representative only to be told he had forgotten to send you the replacement (new) printer. Mr Selznick again assured you that it would be delivered the next day. After waiting at college all day you phoned the sales representative for the third time. This time he told you that the company had run out of stock.

6.1.1 Consider the following scenario: If the roles (above) were reversed and you were the manager of the company where the faulty printer was bought, what will the typical questions be that you would ask yourself or what typical actions will you as manager take when you are in the process of evaluating the customer's complaint?

List THREE such questions or actions. (3 × 2) (6)

6.1.2 If you were Mr Selznick, besides perhaps offering to refund the unhappy customer or offer another printer and model that the customer would be happy with, what alternative preventative measures would you put in place to avoid a similar incident in future or to resolve the complaint? Name FOUR measures. (4 × 2) (8)

Hint: Be specific about your actions
