higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

SCIENCE OF TOURISM
NQF LEVEL 2

13 November 2019

This marking guideline consists of 8 pages.

Copyright reserved

QUESTION 1

1.1
1.1.1 True
1.1.2 True
1.1.3 True
1.1.4 False
1.1.5 False
1.1.6 True
1.1.7 True
1.1.8 False
1.1.9 True
1.1.10 True

(10 × 1) (10)

1.2
- On a commercial airline your ticket includes your seat, catering and free drinks and other additional services.
- On a no-frill airline your ticket would be cheaper and only includes your seat with no extras. (2)

1.3
- TGCSA
- Tourism Grading Council of South Africa (2 × 1) (2)

1.4 Public support service (1)

1.5 1.5.1 False (1)
- John does not communicate easily.
- He battles with English.
- He only wants a half-day job. (3)

1.5.2
- Degree in Tourism
- Diploma in Tourism
- Diploma in Hospitality management
- Diploma in Accommodation Services
- Report 191 Tourism
- Certificate in Tourist Guiding (Any 2 × 1) (2)

1.5.3
- Newspaper
- Department of labour
- Private companies and organisations
- Employment agencies
- Friends and relatives
- Vacancy boards
- Career information centre
- Government departments
- Internet (Any 4 × 1) (4)

Copyright reserved

1.5.4
- Hospitality sector
- Tour guiding
- Travel agency
- Events management
- Airlines
- Vehicle renting
- Gambling and casinos
- Conservation (Any 5 × 1) (5)

1.6 1.6.1 Golden Gate Highlands National Park – dramatic scenery,✓ sandstone formations, large caverns, multicolour sandstone✓ and rock shelters

1.6.2 Blyde River Canyon – 26 km long gorge carved out of the face of the escarpment,✓ one of the natural wonders of Africa✓

1.6.3 Pilgrims Rest – a living museum✓ and a replica of the early gold-mining towns✓

1.6.4 Lake Sibaya – South Africa's largest natural freshwater lake.✓ Bird watching and walks through the coastal forest are major attractions ✓

1.6.5 Cango Caves – spectacular subterranean limestone caverns,✓ known for its dripstone formations✓

(5 × 2) (10)
[40]

QUESTION 2

2.1 2.1.1
- Golden Gate National Park
- Namaqualand

2.1.2
- Basotho Cultural Village
- McGregor Museum

2.1.3
- The Owl House
- Sun City

(3 × 2) (6)

Copyright reserved

2.2 2.2.1
- Rooms were not ready for check-in
- Receptionist unfriendly
- Receptionist not helpful (Any 2 × 2) (4)

2.2.2
- Listening skills – listen attentively, show interest
- Language skills – speak a language that the tourists would understand
- Body language – be aware of your body language, facial expressions, body movements, etc.
- Appearance – staff should be clean, neat, tidy and presentable
- Workplace – the area should be clean and tidy and appear professional
- Personal space – respect the personal space of the tourist

(Any 4 × 2) (8)

2.2.3
- Give immediate and undivided attention
- Never ignore complaints
- Listen carefully to the customer
- Use the correct tone of voice and volume
- Use the guest's name
- Answer questions briefly and clearly
- Show empathy
- Apologise and show the customer that you are taking immediate action
- Do not make excuses, stick to the facts
- Solve the problem immediately
- Stay calm (Any 4 × 2) (8)

2.2.4
- They will take their business elsewhere
- Bad word-of-mouth
- Loss of customers
- Loss of business (4)

2.3
- Crime in general
- Violence, such as riots or armed robberies
- Problems in neighbouring countries may cause clients not to come to South Africa.
- International political conditions
- Bad service reputation
- The value of the rand, as tourists want value for their money
- Natural disasters such as floods, a cyclone or a tsunami could cause tourists to fear to travel to a destination.
- Weather conditions may cause some hospitality services to experience a low season in terms of tourist numbers. (Any 5 × 2) (10)

[40]

QUESTION 3

3.1
- A domestic tourist is a tourist that travels within the borders of his/her own country,✓ for example travelling from Johannesburg via Bloemfontein to Durban and back to Johannesburg.✓
- An international tourist is a tourist that travels beyond the borders of his/her own country,✓ for example travelling from South Africa to Germany.✓ (2 × 2) (4)

3.2
- Income generator✓ – money is spent by the tourist in the local community for services rendered✓
- Economic development✓ – tourists bring foreign currency into the country, which are used for the development of the area, infrastructure, etc.✓
- Tourism creates employment✓ – the more tourists are travelling to a country, the more job opportunities are created✓ (3 × 2) (6)

3.3
- Pollution✓ – air, water and noise pollution✓
- Soil erosion✓ – if large groups of tourists use an area it can lead to soil erosion✓
- Signposting✓ – when an area becomes a tourist area, more signage boards are needed, which reduce the visual appeal of the destination✓
- Vandalism – graffiti, graving of names on trees, spray-painting, breaking off parts of stalactites or corals to take home as souvenirs.
- Erection of high-rise buildings – the more tourists are visiting a destination, the more the need arises for accommodation and other facilities

(Any 3 × 2) (6)

3.4
3.4.1 Transport
3.4.2 Accommodation
3.4.3 Services
3.4.4 Services
3.4.5 Transport

(5 × 1) (5)

3.5
3.5.1 South African Airways – public
3.5.2 Diaz Hotel – private
3.5.3 Rennies Exchange de Bureau – private
3.5.4 Mapungubwe – private
3.5.5 Shosholoza Meyl– public

(5 × 1) (5)

3.6
3.6.1 An attraction that was built by people for a specific purpose

3.6.2 Attractions that are related to history, culture and art

(2 × 2) (4)

Copyright reserved

3.7
- Brings in money in the community
- Leads to job creation
- Increased level of wealth due to higher employment rate
- Improvement in social practices
- Improvement in family life as the tourist money is spent throughout the community (5 × 2) (10)

[40]

QUESTION 4

4.1
4.1.1 Sterkfontein Caves
4.1.2 Mapungubwe National Park
4.1.3 East London Museum
4.1.4 Big Hole
4.1.5 Juma Mosque

(5 × 1) (5)

4.2 4.2.1 Association of South African Travel Agents (2)

4.2.2
- To represent its members and their views
- To act on behalf of its members in negotiations with other sectors of the travel industry
- To continually assess the needs of its members, in order to provide a meaningful service
- To encourage its members to act in a highly professional manner when dealing with the public
- To promote training within all sectors of the travel industry
- To play an active role in the international community of travel agents and travel agent associations (Any 4 × 2) (8)

4.3
- Give advice regarding destinations
- Make arrangements for transportation, hotel accommodation, car rental, tours and recreation
- Advise on weather conditions, restaurants, tourist attractions and recreation.
- Provide information on custom regulations, entry requirements and currency exchange rates.
- Consult published and computer-based sources for information on departure and arrival times, fares, hotel ratings and accommodation
- Assist with travel insurance
- Plan tour packages (Any relevant 5 × 2) (10)

4.4
- Heritage refers to all things that have been left behind for past generations
- and which form part of who a group of peple are
- and how they are defined at present. (3)

4.5 4.5.1
- Mapungubwe
- Cradle of Humankind
- Vredefort Dome
- uKhahlamba-Drakensberg Park
- St Lucia Wetlands Park
- Cape Floral Region
- Robben Island (Any 4 × 1) (4)

4.5.2
- Mapungubwe – cultural
- Cradle of Humankind – cultural
- Vredefort Dome – natural
- uKhahlamba-Drakensberg Park - natural
- St Lucia Wetlands Park – natural
- Cape Floral Region – natural
- Robben Island – cultural/natural (Any 4 × 1) (4)

4.5.3
- Mapungubwe – Limpopo
- Cradle of Humankind – Gauteng
- Vredefort Dome – Free State
- uKhahlamba-Drakensberg Park – KwaZulu Natal
- St Lucia Wetlands Park – KwaZulu Natal
- Cape Floral Region – Western Cape
- Robben Island – Western Cape (Any 4 × 1) (4)

[30]

QUESTION 5

5.1 Market segmentation can be described as the process of dividing the total market into groups✓ of which the members share common characteristics relevant to the purchase or the use of the products.✓ (2)

5.2 Senior citizens.✓ (1)
He realised that in his community there are no travel agents available✓ and local transport is to the minimum, ✓ which makes it especially difficult for the elderly people. (2)

5.3
- It makes it easier to understand the needs and wants of the different tourists.
- It ensures that the business caters for the specific needs of the market segment to ensure return business.
- It will indicate to the business if it should adapt the current product or produce new products. (Any relevant 2 × 2) (4)

5.4 5.4.1 Growth phase✓
- Collin has just entered the tourism industry.
- He started his own company named Travel About. (1 + 2) (3)

5.4.2 Maturity phase✓ – when the product loses its uniqueness, as more competitors enter the market.✓✓
Saturation✓ – Increase in competitors and new interest must be created to attract and increase sales.✓✓
Decline✓ – Decline in sales and interest in the product.✓✓ (3 × 3) (9)

5.5 Retail travel consultant✓
He offers customers assistance with travel arrangements, including flights, accommodation and visa applications.✓✓ (1 + 2) (3)

5.6
- Printed matter✓ – brochures, travel guides, magazines, newspapers, flyers✓
- Electronic information systems✓ – internet, e-mail, travel agency databases✓
- Media✓ – radio, television✓
- Travel industry reference manuals✓ – GSA✓
- Tourism agencies✓ – tour operators✓ (5 × 2) (10)

5.7
- To visit relatives or friends
- To go on holiday
- To attend business meetings, seminars, congresses or conferences
- To study
- For religious or cultural reasons
- For health reasons (Any relevant 6 × 1) (6)

[40]

TOTAL: 200

Copyright reserved