higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

TOURISM OPERATIONS
NQF LEVEL 3

21 NOVEMBER 2019

This marking guideline consists of 7 pages.

Copyright reserved

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

1.1 1.1.1 True
1.1.2 False
1.1.3 False
1.1.4 False
1.1.5 True

(5 × 1) (5)

1.2 1.2.1 An entrepreneur is a person who thinks of ways to generate money for himself/herself by identifying needs in the community.

OR

An entrepreneur is a person with the ability to identify business opportunities and the courage to utilise these opportunities while facing risks and uncertainties.

(Any applicable answer) (3)

1.2.2
- Job creation – Entrepreneurship creates employment in local communities, which will decrease crime and poverty.
- Local wealth creation – The entrepreneur and their family benefit directly from the income of the business. Locals who are employed get an opportunity to create their own wealth.
- Negation of migrant labour – Entrepreneurship in the local community will provide young people with jobs, thereby reducing the migration of young people to cities to find employment.
- Urbanisation – Entrepreneurship will provide job opportunities in local communities; thus, fewer people will move to cities, which will lessen urbanisation.
- Empowerment – Entrepreneurship provides the opportunity to empower previously disadvantaged communities. (Any 3 × 2) (6)

1.2.3
- Women in Tourism Forum, which deals with the challenges faced by women in an industry where most women work in low-level jobs
- Executive Development Programme, which has been designed to build black women's leadership and business skills
- Enterprise Development Programme, which provides a tourism information portal to bridge the information gap between entrepreneurs and business opportunities (3 × 2) (6)

1.2.4
- Outgoing personality
- Lots of energy
- Organised
- Prepared to take risks
- Believes in herself (5 × 1) (5)

Copyright reserved

1.2.5
- Incompetent management
- Poor financial management
- Lack of experience
- Poor financial control
- Personal factors (Any 2 × 1) (2)

1.2.6
- Prepare a good business plan.
- Know your business.
- Have knowledge of financial issues.
- Learn to manage people effectively.
- Entrepreneurial transition
- Networking
- Trade associations (Any 3 × 1) (3)

[30]

QUESTION 2

2.1 Marketing can be defined as all activities and techniques used to inform potential consumers about a product or service and to convince them to buy it. (Any relevant answer) (3)

2.2 Price:✓ Prices vary between R575 and R825.✓✓
Place✓– flymango.com✓✓
Promotion:✓ Book from 9 am on 11 February to 9 pm on 12 February.✓✓
Product:✓ Mango air tickets are available to various destinations.✓✓ (4 × 3) (12)

2.3
2.3.1 C
2.3.2 G
2.3.3 B
2.3.4 A
2.3.5 C

(5 × 2) (10)

2.4
- To meet the needs of the consumer
- To promote the product or service
- To generate an income and a profit
- To remind customers of the product/service
- To illustrate competiveness (Any relevant answer) (5)

[30]

QUESTION 3

3.1 D
3.2 A
3.3 B
3.4 B
3.5 C
3.6 C
3.7 D
3.8 D
3.9 C
3.10 A

(10 × 1) (10)

3.2
- Professional-looking cover page and contents page
- Summary
- Description of proposed business
- Marketing plan
- Financial plan
- Management plan
- Conclusion
- Supportive elements (8)

3.3
- The bank will be able to access/learn about the planning and managerial ability of the entrepreneur.
- The business plan provides clear and concise information for a thorough business and financial evaluation.
- The business plan identifies risks and supplies contingency plans for the business venture.
- The plan indicates the ability of the entrepreneur to make a profit, which will make it possible for the entrepreneur to repay the loan.

(Any 3 × 2) (6)

3.4
- Mortgage bonds – The entrepreneur owns property and gives the right of the property over to the bank.
- Cession – The entrepreneur cedes documents, such as insurance policies, to the bank.
- Surety – A third person takes responsibility for the debt of the entrepreneur, should he/she be unable to repay the debt. (3 × 2) (6)

[30]

QUESTION 4

4.1 4.1.1
- Awareness – The marketer makes potential customers aware of the product/service.
- Trial – The business provides potential customers with the opportunity to test out the product or service.
- Reinforcement – Customers are satisfied with the product or service and thus return for repeat business. (3 × 2) (6)

4.1.2 Awareness – The advertisement introduces the opening of a new hotel. (2)

4.1.3
- Draw attention – using big, bold words and pictures
- Create interest – by introducing an opening special: book 2 nights, stay 3 nights
- Develop a desire – to go and stay at the hotel
- Result in action – a booking is made. (4 × 2) (8)

4.1.4 STEP 1: Determine the promotional opportunity and promotional objectives.
STEP 2: Select the appropriate audience.
STEP 3: Convey the message.
STEP 4: Put together the marketing communication mix.
STEP 5: Determine the budget.
STEP 6: Implement the plan.
STEP 7: Measure the result. (7)

4.1.5 Implement the plan✓ – In this step, the advertisement appears in a newspaper, magazine or on the internet.✓✓ (3)

4.2
- Consumer orientation occurs when marketing is aimed at satisfying consumer needs,✓ for example a hotel advertisement stating that the hotel is ideal for business travellers and all rooms have free Wi-Fi available.✓
- Profit orientation occurs when marketing is aimed at making sales and profit,✓ for example, 'pay for 2 nights, stay 3 nights'.✓ (2 × 2) (4)

[30]

QUESTION 5

5.1 Work team✓ – From the minute the project was announced and the 10 staff members of Global Travel were assigned, several of the members were overheard telling their colleagues that they didn't understand why they needed to be involved in this initiative.✓✓ (1 + 2) (3)

5.2
- The team members did not know what were expected of them.
- Some members felt that they did not have sufficient knowledge and skills for the tasks assigned to them.
- Some were concerned that they would not receive recognition for their efforts and would get 'lost' in the team.
- Problems and issues in the team were not discussed. (Any 3 × 2) (6)

5.3
- The leader should take responsibility for his own behaviour as well as that of the members.
- Assign tasks that are reachable and attainable to the members.
- Get members with the necessary knowledge and skills to perform the tasks at hand.
- Give direction to the team.
- Encourage participation by members and discuss dissatisfaction.
- Summarise the progress of the tasks from time to time.
- Stimulate creativity and innovation in the team.

(Any relevant answer – Any 5 × 2) (10)

5.4 Forming – During this stage, a new team is established.
Storming – Members are still new and there may be conflict amongst them.
Norming – Team members start working together to reach the common goal.
Performing – The team is focused on reaching the common goal. (4 × 2) (8)

5.5 Storming✓ – The members of the team are not working well together and a great deal of conflict exists in the team.✓✓ (1 + 2) (3)

[30]

QUESTION 6

6.1
6.1.1 MICE
6.1.2 Guest house
6.1.3 Tour guide
6.1.4 Restaurant
6.1.5 Home-based travel agent

(5 × 2) (10)

6.2 6.2.1 Lease contract (2)

6.2.2 Parties – Peter Pollock and Mercia Delport
Purpose – lease contract
Commencement date – 1 April 2018
Expiry date – 1 April 2019 (4 × 2) (8)

6.3
- Production era: During this era, marketers believed that customers would buy products just because they were available.
- Sales era: During this era, marketers realised that to sell products they would have to promote the products.
- Marketing era: During this era, marketers realised to sell products they would have to meet the needs of the customer. (3 × 2) (6)

6.4
- It provides information on products and services to potential customers in order to be aware of what the business offers.
- It promotes a company image.
- It creates a stabilising demand, ensuring that there is a constant need for the product.
- It differentiates the product or service from those of competitors, highlighting the advantages of the product or service.
- It leads to customer loyalty and retention, ensuring customers will return for future business.
- It motivates staff to see the benefits of providing excellent customer service. (Any 2 × 2) (4)

[30]

TOTAL: 180

Copyright reserved