higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

CLIENT SERVICE AND HUMAN RELATIONS
NQF LEVEL 4

(11011024)

27 February 2019 (X-Paper)
09:00–12:00

This question paper consists of 11 pages.

NCV

TIME: 3 HOURS
MARKS: 200

INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

1. Answer ALL the questions.
2. Read ALL the questions carefully.
3. Number the answers according to the numbering system used in this question paper.
4. Write neatly and legibly.

NCCV

QUESTION 1

1.1 Choose a term from COLUMN B that matches a description in COLUMN A. Choose the answer and write only the letter (A–L) next to the question number (1.1.1–1.1.10) in the ANSWER BOOK.

COLUMN A		COLUMN B
1.1.1	The type of survey recommended if you want to improve the service for a specific group of clients.	A	lost account survey
1.1.2	An unplanned set of clients are asked to evaluate the service they received to measure overall client satisfaction.	B	questionnaire
1.1.3	Using a pop-up window on a computer to measure the clients experience at a hotel.	C	target account survey
1.1.4	An on the spot interview conducted with clients as they leave the establishment.	D	traditional survey
1.1.5	An interview conducted in person or telephonically to find out why a client no longer wants to do business with the establishment.	E	face-to-face interviews
1.1.6	A staff survey used to determine the morale of staff.	F	company-wide survey
1.1.7	Clients are called and asked a set of pre-designed questions.	G	focus group
1.1.8	One or two pages of written or printed questions that address the specific concerns of the client.	H	random customer survey
1.1.9	A group of people that get together to discuss and provided feedback on service related issues.	I	customer exit survey
1.1.10	A one-on-one meeting with a client in order to quickly identify key areas that might need urgent attention at a hotel.	J	marketing survey
		K	telephone survey
		L	web-based survey

(10 × 1) (10)

The receptionist at the King Hotel sends a client from one staff member to the next after she complains about her missing cell phone.

1.2 Evaluate the impact of referring clients' complaints to the wrong personnel. (5)

1.3 Name the department in a Hospitality or Tourism establishment that is responsible for handling each of the following complaints:

1.3.1 Wrong booking

1.3.2 Incompetent staff

1.3.3 Wrong billing

1.3.4 Misleading advertisements

1.3.5 Delayed refunds

1.3.6 Broken windows in guests' rooms

(6 × 1) (6)

1.4 It is important to check all the elements on a client's itinerary prior to his/her arrival to ensure personalised treatment and client satisfaction.

Recommend FIVE aspects that should be checked on the client's itinerary. (5)

1.5 It is important to practice active listening to overcome communication barriers or misunderstandings when dealing with clients.

Select SIX active listening skills from the list below. Write only the answers in list form in the ANSWER BOOK.

fidget; make eye contact; take notes; empathise; avoid distraction; wave your hand; make a fist; scratch your head; nod your head; shake hands; restate key ideas; tap your finger; fold your arms; ask questions

(6 × 1) (6)

1.6 List FOUR ways to check your own performance when dealing with clients. (4)

1.7 Describe how to communicate with a client in a friendly and courteous manner. (4)

[40]

NCV

QUESTION 2

2.1 Classify each of the following types of clients:

2.1.1 A group of people visiting an organisation to see what the organisation offers

2.1.2 Companies supplying cleaning services in an organisation

2.1.3 Business travellers using accommodation, restaurants and conference halls

(3 × 1) (3)

2.2 Explain why employers value employees who can work effectively in teams. (3)

2.3 Various options are given as possible answers to the following questions. Choose the answer and write only the letter (A–D) next to the question number (2.3.1–2.3.10) in the ANSWER BOOK.

2.3.1 If complaints are not handled promptly and positively the organisation can ...

A improve the business image.
B lose lifelong customers.
C increase business profits.
D gain lifelong customers.

2.3.2 Complaints should be referred to appropriate personnel when a staff member is …

A on the telephone with a friend.
B not in the mood to assist clients.
C unable to solve the complaints.
D able to solve all complaints.

2.3.3 Clients will return to the business if the ...

A products and services are unaffordable.
B services are of an unacceptable standard.
C services are of an acceptable standard.
D products and services are expensive.

2.3.4 Taking care of clients is the priority of ...

A front-office personnel only.
B all managers and staff.
C all housekeeping and kitchen staff.
D managers and concierge only.

NCV

2.3.5 In order to improve the service to customers employees should be given …

A ongoing training.
B extra leave days.
C salary increases.
D additional tasks.

2.3.6 An employee who shows loyalty to a company during his/her employment is one who …

A discloses information about company.
B is outspoken about the company.
C displays a professional attitude
D is highly unprofessional.

2.3.7 The ability of an individual to communicate and interact well with other people is called ... skills.

A active-listening
B interactive
C passive-listening
D interpersonal

2.3.8 Employees who take on additional responsibilities can …

A make a positive contribution.
B demand days off from work.
C replace the management.
D demand extra remuneration.

2.3.9 If a client complains about a staff member, the employee in charge should …

A defend his/her colleague.
B listen without interrupting.
C ask the client to forget about it.
D constantly interrupt the client.

2.3.10 An example of information that must be kept confidential in a hotel is the … by the client.

A amenities used
B hairdresser used
C qualifications attained
D salary earned

(10 × 1) (10)

Copyright reserved

2.4 It is important for staff to maintain a professional relationship with clients at all times.

Justify this statement. (5)

2.5 Explain how to deal with each of the following requests:

2.5.1 A client's request to smoke in a non-smoking room. (3)

2.5.2 A client's request to sell beer to his 15-year-old boy. (3)

2.6 Give THREE examples of audiovisual media an organisation can use to promote its products and services. (3)

2.7 Read the scenario below and answer the questions that follow:

Sunset Game Lodge offers the clients the following products and services:

- En-suite bedrooms with baths and showers
- Braai facilities
- Bird watching
- Swimming pool
- Laundry services
- Restaurant and bar services

2.7.1 Suggest FOUR ways in which the products and services of the hotel can be promoted using printed media. (4)

2.7.2 A couple with two children will be staying at the Sunset Game Lodge for 4 nights.
Evaluate the suitability of the products and services offered for the family. (4)

2.7.3 Recommend TWO products and services that the hotel can include for business travellers. (2)

[40]

QUESTION 3

3.1 Recommend SIX ways to increase client satisfaction. (6)

3.2 Give SIX reasons why it is important to record all complaints and requests in the correct format and in line with organisational policy. (6)

3.3 Explain why companies rely on rules, procedures and policies to achieve organisational goals. (4)

3.4 Discuss FOUR environmental factors that the Hospitality and Tourism industry and clients must take into account. (4)

Copyright reserved

3.5 Give SIX examples of emergency situations that can occur in the workplace. (6)

3.6 Suggest SIX aspects that should to be documented in an organisational health and safety plan. (6)

3.7 Read the following scenario and answer the questions that follow:

Five kitchen staff hurt in Cape Town restaurant gas blast

Theo Layne, the spokesman for Cape Town Fire and Rescue Service, said the alarm was raised after a canister exploded in the kitchen.

'The kitchen staff got injured, two severely and the other three sustained minor burns. You could smell the gas in the air. It's the first time something like this has happened in the 19 years I have worked in this centre.'

Rescue services went to the first-floor restaurant and extinguished the flames. The centre was evacuated.

Adapted from: https://www.sowetanlive.co.za/news/south-africa/2018-07-05

3.7.1 Explain what could have happened if the staff do not respond quickly and promptly. (4)

3.7.2 Name FOUR personnel/departments that could have been called to assist in this situation. (4)

[40]

QUESTION 4

4.1 Read the following extract and answer the question.

Five kitchen staff hurt in Cape Town restaurant gas blast

'I jumped up and followed people who were rushing out of the centre. I went to the restaurant and found the staff lying down. Their clothes were stuck to their bodies. I helped to tear their clothes off. They are severely injured.

Adapted from: https://www.sowetanlive.co.za/news/south-africa/2018-07-05

Explain how to treat third degree burns correctly. (5)

4.2 Explain how to handle each of the following situations in the workplace:

4.2.1 Being taken hostage. (5)

4.2.2 A suspicious package (5)

4.3 Choose ONE term from the list below for the following descriptions. Write only the term next to the question number (4.3.1–4.3.10) in the ANSWER BOOK. Each word may only be used once.

slurred speech; clot; haemorrhage; hypertension; laceration; paralysis; rupture; puncture; angina pectoris; heart burn

4.3.1 Unusual high blood pressure

4.3.2 Torn bodily tissue

4.3.3 Pronounce words so that they cannot be distinguished

4.3.4 Squeezing, steady pain behind the breastbone

4.3.5 Mass of thickened blood

4.3.6 Loss of movement as a result of damaged nerves or muscle function

4.3.7 Uncomfortable burning sensation in the lower chest

4.3.8 Open wounds caused by a blunt knife

4.3.9 Excessive bleeding from a wound

4.3.10 Small wound or hole made by a sharp object

(10 × 1) (10)

4.4 An electrical shock is dangerous as it can paralyse the body's breathing centre in the brain and can cause unconsciousness or even death.

List FIVE basic safety principles people should bear in mind when using electricity. (5)

4.5 Give THREE basic rules that apply when handling any emergency. (3)

4.6 If bleeding is not controlled within a short period of time a patient can go into shock.

4.6.1 Explain the procedures to follow to control bleeding in each of the following ways:

(a) Direct pressure (2)
(a) Elevation (1)
(b) Pressure points (1)

4.6.2 Name THREE symptoms of a deep shock. (3)

[40]

NCV

QUESTION 5

5.1 Categorise the performance issues listed below into training needs and environmental issues. Copy and complete the table in your ANSWER BOOK.

arriving late for work; low wages; poor listening skills; incomplete tasks; lack of support from company; offices with no windows; not paying attention to client's needs; lack of resources; lack of problem-solving skills; disagreements and arguments; failure to operate a photocopy machine

Training needs	Environmental issues

(4 × 2) (8)

5.2 Define each of the following terms:

5.2.1 Performance issues

5.2.2 Observation

5.2.3 Interview

5.2.4 Job variation

(4 × 2) (8)

5.3 Recommend ONE appropriate action to resolve each of the following performance issues:

5.3.1 Staff not inspired to do their work

5.3.2 Staff not having the right tools to do their job

5.3.3 Staff unable to provide clients with information on products and services.

5.3.4 Staff arriving late and leaving early from work.

5.3.5 Staff conflict due to workload.

5.3.6 Staff not completing tasks within the stipulated timeframe.

(6 × 1) (6)

Copyright reserved

5.4 Explain the purpose of each of the following training-review methods:

5.4.1 Feedback form

5.4.2 Paper and pen test

5.4.3 Performance test

5.4.4 Evaluation of evidence

(4 × 1) (4)

5.5 Name FOUR ways to identify strengths and weaknesses of employees in the workplace. (4)

5.6 Indicate whether the following statements are TRUE or FALSE. Choose the answer and write only 'True' or 'False' next to the question number (5.6.1–5.6.5) in the ANSWER BOOK.

5.6.1 Gaps in work performance could arise due to changes in the company.

5.6.2 Formal training means that staff members are taught how to perform tasks by management or other staff members while at work.

5.6.3 The involvement of staff in designing and implementing action plans will increase their dissatisfaction as they will be overloaded with too much work.

5.6.4 One of the three aspects that make up an employee's sense of achievement is job satisfaction.

5.6.5 Feedback refers to statements about a person's performance in relation to the objectives that the employee and the manager have decided upon together.

(5 × 1) (5)

5.7 A staff member is not able to assist clients with their reservations and the manager in the department has received numerous complaints. The manager discovers that the staff member is not computer literate.

Suggest FIVE possible ways in which the staff member can be trained. (5)

[40]

TOTAL: 200

Copyright reserved